C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23d day of December 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for authorizing the sale of certain property lately belonging to the prebend of Gretton, in the cathedral church of Lincoln.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, and other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property, hereinafter described, is so vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us by proper instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase-money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same:

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, described in the schedule hereunder written, lately formed the endowment of the said prebend of Gretton, or a part thereof, and are now vested in us by reason of the vacancy of the said prebend:

"And whereas we have contracted and agreed for the sale of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, subject to the determination of a certain subsisting lease, for lives, to the purchaser, and for the price hereinafter mentioned:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said recited Act, to the Right Honourable George William Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, his heirs or assigns, or as he or they shall direct and appoint, at and for the price or sum of nine thousand one hundred and twenty pounds, all our estate and interest in
