

Order ratifying the same, made by your Majesty in Council on the thirteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and duly gazetted, the district of Darnall was duly constituted out of the chapelry of Attercliffe cum Darnall, in the parish of Sheffield, in the said county and diocese of York; and, a church having been duly approved by us and consecrated as the church of the said district for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, such district has since become, under the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, by the name of "The New Parish of Darnall:"

"And whereas the said scheme and Order contained no provision respecting the right of patronage of the said district or new parish:

"And whereas a sum of one hundred and twenty-nine pounds has been deposited with us, upon trust, to be applied in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient, as a permanent fund towards the repairs and maintenance of the fabric of the said church:

"And whereas the principal contributors towards the erection of the said church have, by an instrument in writing under their hands, nominated to us the five several persons hereinafter named and described, as trustees of the right of patronage in perpetuity of the said new parish, and of the nomination of the perpetual curate thereof, and have, in and by the same instrument, proposed that vacancies in the trusteeship of such patronage shall be filled up, from time to time, in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of the said new parish of Darnall, and the nomination of the perpetual curate thereof, shall be assigned to, and may be exercised in perpetuity by, the following persons, as trustees duly nominated to us for that purpose; that is to say, the Right Honourable Charles William Wentworth Earl Fitzwilliam, the Reverend Thomas Sutton, Doctor in Divinity, Vicar of Sheffield, the Reverend John Blackburn, Master of Arts, Incumbent of Attercliffe, in the said parish of Sheffield, the Reverend Alfred Ollivant, Doctor in Divinity, Regius Professor of Divinity in the University of Cambridge, and William Jeffcock, of High Hazles, in the county of York, Esquire, or the survivors or survivor of them, continuing to be such trustees, and such future trustee or trustees, being a member or members of the United Church of England and Ireland, as the trustees or trustee for the time being, or the major part of them, shall, from time to time, nominate, by writing under his or their hands or hand, which he and they is and are hereby authorized and empowered to do, in the place and stead of any one or more trustee or trustees who shall, from time to time, die, resign, or become incapable of acting; provided always, that the number of such trustees shall not at any time exceed five.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of January 1846.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, that is to say:
