

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act "to make better provision for the spiritual care "of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for assigning compensation for loss of income to the vicar of Heanor, in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it is by the herein-recited Act enacted, that the Acts therein recited, so far as they apply to making better provision for the cure of souls, shall extend to authorize the assigning, at any time and from time to time, to the incumbent of any church or chapel, whose fees, dues, or other emoluments shall be diminished by or in consequence of any proceeding under the provisions of the Act now in recital, and, if it be deemed fit by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), to his successors also, of such an annual sum as shall, upon due inquiry, appear to be a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution :

"And whereas by a scheme, duly prepared and laid before your Majesty in Council by us, and an Order ratifying the same, made by your Majesty in Council on the third day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and duly gazetted, the district of Codnor and Loscoe was duly constituted out of the parish of Heanor aforesaid; and, a church having been duly approved by us and consecrated as the church of the said district for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, such district has since become, under the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, by the name of "The New Parish of Codnor and Loscoe :"

"And whereas, by reason of the constituting of the said new parish, certain fees and emoluments arising therein, heretofore receivable or which would have been receivable by the vicar for the time being of the said parish of Heanor, if the said new parish had not been constituted as aforesaid, are and will be, under the authority of the said herein-recited Act, now receivable by the perpetual curate for the time being of the said

new parish, and the fees and emoluments of the living of Heanor aforesaid are and will be proportionately diminished; and whereas the average annual income of the said living of Heanor is of small amount, and it appears to us, upon due inquiry, to be just and reasonable that the annual sum hereinafter mentioned should be assigned to the vicar of Heanor, and his successors, as compensation for such diminution as aforesaid :

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us to the vicar of Heanor for the time being, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, the fixed annual sum of eight pounds; and that on the first day of May next there shall be paid by us to such vicar three such half-yearly payments; and that in case of a vacancy in the said vicarage having occurred, or hereafter occurring, on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the vicar making the vacancy, or his personal representatives, and the succeeding vicar.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.
