WHEREAS some time in the month of June 1833, Henry Wilson Lardner, then a Captain in the 53d Regiment of Madras Native Infantry, embarked with his wife, Louisa Hart Lardner, and their three infant children, at Madras, in the East Indies, on a voyage to Van Dieman's Land, on board the Lady Monro, which vessel, in the night of the 11th of October 1833, struck the coral reefs off the island of Amsterdam, and went down, when, out of about ninety persons on board, seventy-four perished, amongst whom (as it is supposed) were the said Henry Wilson Lardner, his wife, and three infant children aforesaid; if any person can give certain information as to the deaths (or otherwise) of the above-mentioned persons, and will apply in that behalf to H. L. Smale, of Doctors'-commons, London, Proctor he shall be rewarded for his trouble.

WHEREAS by indenture of lease, bearing date on or about the 23d day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1748, Sir Thomas Taylor, Bart. demised and set unto John Loftus, of Laughrea, in the county of Galway, Esq. his heirs and assigns, all that and those the lands of Cloutuskert otherwise Gartahaha otherwise Willmount, in the county of Galway, containing by estimation seven hundred and twenty-four acres of Irish plantation measure, be the same more or less, to hold to the said John Loftus, his heirs and assigns, for the natural lives of three persons therein named, and the survivors and survivor of them, at the yearly rent of one hundred and ninety pounds of the then Irish currency, payable half yearly, above taxes, in which lease is contained a covenant for renewing the same on payment of the sum of forty-seven pounds ten shillings of the like currency, as a renewal fine, on the fall of each and every life; and whereas the estate and interest of the said Sir Thomas Taylor, in the said lands, is now vested in his grandson, the Honourable and Reverend Edward Taylor, of Ardgillan-castle, in the county of Dublin, Clerk, who by deed, bearing date the 30th day of August, in the year 1821, renewed the said lease to Sarah Lynch, widow, and guardian of Anthony Lynch, a minor, the Reverend John Benton, Bridget Thompson, Charles O'Connor, and Margaret O'Connor otherwise Gardiner, his wife, in whom the interest of the said John Loftus was then vested, for the lives of the said John Benton, William Thomas Le Poer Trench, then Viscount Dunlo, now the Earl of Clancarty, and Ulick John De Burgh, then Earl of Clanricarde, now the Marquis of Clanricarde; and whereas the said John Benton, one of the cestui que vies named in the said last renewal, died in the year 1822, whereby one fine became due and payable, and still remains due to the said Edward Taylor, besides other reasonable compensation for the non-payment thereof, which fine and compensation the said Edward Taylor has lately demanded from all such persons as to the knowledge of the said Edward Taylor are entitled to the lessee's interest in the said lease, or any part thereof, so far as it was practicable to make such demand; but in consequence of the difficulty of discovering all the persons in whom the lessee's interest is now vested, and of making such demand on them, the said fine and compensation has also been lately demanded from Daniel Colahan, Patrick M'Loughlan, William Murphy, and John Turley, the principal occupiers of the said lands of Cloutuskert, pursuant to the provisions of the Tenantry Act (nineteenth and twentieth of George the Third, c. 30, Irish); now I, the said Honourable and Reverend Edward Taylor, do hereby give notice to all whom it may concern, that I have made a demand of the renewal fine and compensation payable to me by reason of the death of the said Reverend John Benton; and I do further hereby give notice, that unless the same shall be forthwith paid to me, the right to a perpetual renewal of the said lease will be forfeited.—Dated this 14th day of February 1846.
