

district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said respective sums of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November, as the case may be, next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of either of such districts or new parishes shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

No. 1.—“ The district of CHRIST CHURCH, ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE, being—

“ All that part of the parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and numbered 1) on the western boundary of the said parish, and on the southern bank of the river Medlock, and thence extending towards the north east along such southern bank as far as the brook which flows into the said river at or near ‘Water-houses’ (marked b as aforesaid), and thence along the southern bank of such brook to a point (marked c as aforesaid) at or near ‘the Hollows,’ where the said brook is crossed by a certain road or footpath leading thence to Smallshaw-green, and thence southward along the middle of such road or footpath, and along the middle of the road from Smallshaw-green aforesaid to Ashton, to a point (marked d as aforesaid) opposite to the south western corner of a certain field called Ousson-field, belonging to the Earl of Stamford and Warrington, and now in the occupation of William Miller, and thence eastward, along the southern fence of such field as far as the middle of Smallshaw-lane, and thence southward along the middle of such lane to a point (marked e as aforesaid) opposite to the middle of a certain road or footpath leading from ‘The Firs’ to ‘Hurst,’ and thence along the middle of such last-mentioned road or footpath as far as Yoke-brook, and thence along the middle of such brook as far as the middle of Warrington-street, and thence along the middle of such street as far as Katharine-street, and thence towards the south west along the middle of such last-mentioned street as far as Bentinck-street, and thence towards the north west along the middle of such last-mentioned street as far as the middle of a certain new or intended street or road, forming a continuation of Wellington-road, and thence westward along the middle of such new or intended road as far as the boundary of ‘Ashton Moss,’ and thence first towards the south west along such boundary to its junction with the boundary of the said parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, and thence towards the north west along such last-mentioned boundary to the point where the said imaginary line commenced.

No. 2.—“ The district of HURST, being—

“ All that part of the said parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and numbered 2) on the boundary of the said district of Christ Church, Ashton-under-Lyne, at or near ‘The Hollows,’ and thence extending towards the north east, along the middle of the road leading to Lockingates, Lower-fold, Alt-hill, and Twarl-hill, to a point (marked b on the last-mentioned map) at or near Twarl-hill aforesaid, opposite to the middle of another road leading into Lily-lanes, and thence southward along the middle of such last-mentioned road, as far as the middle of another