

same Order specified, be sold, and become absolutely conveyed to and be vested in the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Worcester, and their successors, and be included in and form part of the precincts of the said church; now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, hereby give notice, that the said sum of three thousand pounds has been duly paid to us, for the purposes of the said Acts; and has been placed to our credit and account in the Bank of England.

By order of the Board;

C. K. Murray, Treasurer and Secretary,
5, Whitehall-Place, March 6, 1846.

Whitehall, March 6, 1846.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Sir Charles Smith, of Thornton-hall, in the county of York, Bart. only surviving son of Sir John-Silvester Smith, late of Newland-park, in the said county, Bart. deceased (by Henrietta his wife, daughter of the late John Dodsworth, of Thornton Watlas, in the same county, Esq. and sister of Frederick Dodsworth, of Thornton-hall, Clerk, Doctor in Divinity, and one of the Canons of the Royal Chapel of Saint George, within the Castle of Windsor, also deceased), and brother and heir of Sir Edward Dodsworth, heretofore Sir Edward Smith, also of Thornton-hall, Bart. lately deceased, Her Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a condition and direction contained in the last will and testament of his late maternal uncle, the said Frederick Dodsworth, assume and take the surname of Dodsworth only; and that he and they may bear the arms of Dodsworth, of Thornton-hall aforesaid, quarterly with those of Smith; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, February 28, 1846.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Henry Lovibond, of Bridgwater, in the county of Somerset, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named St. Andrew's Free Church, situated at Oxford-road, in the township of Chorlton-upon-Medlock, in the county of Lancaster, in the district of Chorlton, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 26th day of February 1846, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 28th day of February 1846,
Alex. Butler Rowley, Superintendent Registrar.

No. 20581.

B

Trinity-House, London, March 6, 1846.

THE Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond having licenced pilots for the port of Bridgwater and the navigation, to conduct and pilot vessels sailing, navigating, or passing into or out of the said port or navigation, such navigation including so much of the bay of Bridgwater and the river Parrett as is coloured blue on the map of the said bay and river, authenticated by the signature of Henry Broadwood, Esq. M.P. and deposited at the Office of the Town Clerk of Bridgwater, do hereby give notice thereof, pursuant to the directions of an Act, passed in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for improving the navigation of the river and bay leading to the borough of Bridgwater, for maintaining the present bridge, and extending the quays within the borough, and for forming a communication by road and by railway between the Quays and the Bristol and Exeter Railway."

And from and after the 21st day of April now next ensuing all vessels (save and except as in the said Act mentioned or referred to) sailing, navigating, or passing into or out of the said port or navigation are to be conducted and piloted by such pilots only as have been so licenced, and by no other pilots or persons whomsoever; but in relation to vessels at present absent on foreign voyages, and which shall remain absent on the said 21st day of April, the said Corporation do appoint further time for compliance by the masters or other persons having the command of such vessels with the provisions of the said Act, viz. until the return of such vessels respectively into port from their present voyages.
