AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 25th day of February 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act " to make better provision for the spiritual care of " populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

" Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district, out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as thereafter provided:

“ And whereas the said parish of Bermondsey is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such parish hereinafter mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth:

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard Bishop of Winchester, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Bermondsey, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, “ The District of Saint Paul, Bermondsey.”

“ And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ The district of SAINT PAUL, BERMONDSEY, being—

“ All that part of the parish of Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, situate on the western side of an imaginary line, commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) in the middle of the street or road called Snows-fields, where such street or road crosses the boundary between the said parish of Bermondsey and the parish of Saint Olave, Southwark, in the same county and diocese, and thence, extending towards the south west, along the middle of such street or road, to a point (marked b as aforesaid) opposite to the middle of the street called Suffolk-place, and thence southward, along the middle of such last-mentioned street, to a point (marked c as aforesaid) opposite to the boundary between the houses on the east side of Suffolk-place aforesaid and certain premises in the occupation of Messrs. PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared; and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Birstal, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

“Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district, out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council, that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as thereafter provided :

“And whereas the said parish of Birstal is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such parish hereinafter mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth :

ERRATUM in the Gazette of the 10th instant.

Prince Albert's Own Leicestershire Yeomanry Cavalry.

For Thomas John Pavis, Gent. to be Cornet, &c. Read, Thomas John Pares, Gent. to be Cornet, &c.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Independent Chapel, Castle Gates, situated at Shrewsbury, in the county of Salop, in the district of Shrewsbury, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 13th day of March 1846, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 14th day of March 1846,
Charles Bowen Teece, Superintendent Registrar.

In the matter of letters patent granted to Thomas Griffiths, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, tin plate worker, for "an improvement in the manufacture of tea kettles and other articles then usually made of copper, copper tinned or plated, iron tinned, or any other metal or metals," bearing date the 15th day of February 1834.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, under and by virtue and in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law touching letters patent for inventions," a petition has been presented to Her Majesty's Attorney General by the above-named Thomas Griffiths, praying that he may be at liberty to enter, with the Clerk of the Letters Patent of England, a disclaimer and memorandum of alteration as to parts of the title and specification of his above-mentioned letters patent, in the following manner, or to the following purport or effect (that is to say);

A disclaimer of the words "or plated," and also of the words "or any other metal or metals," in the said title.

A disclaimer of the words "and other articles hereinafter mentioned," which occur at the commencement of the describing part of the specification, immediately after the words "my improvement in tea kettles."

A disclaimer of the words "or article," being the eleventh and twelfth words further on in the same sentence, in the said specification.

A disclaimer of the words "of rolled copper plate, copper tinned or plated, or iron plate," which occur soon afterwards in the said specification, there being one hundred and twenty words, or thereabouts, between them and the said words "or article," lastly disclaimed.

A disclaimer of the words "and other articles," which form part of a sentence further on in the said specification, commencing, "and respecting the other mode hereinbefore mentioned of manufacturing tea kettles and other articles according to my said improvement, by making the body of the tea kettle out of two pieces of metal," and so forth.

A disclaimer of the words "and plate of other rolled and laminated metals," and also of the words "such as brass," which respectively occur in the following sentence further on in the said specification, "and also the aforesaid mode of making such articles in two halves by so stamping and burnishing is applicable to rolled iron plate, and plate of other rolled and laminated metals which are of a less ductile quality than copper, such as brass," and so forth.

An alteration in the title of the said invention, by adding the word "certain," after the word "and," and before the words "other articles."

An alteration in the said title, by adding the more limited words "iron plate or tin plate," after the words "iron tinned," and in lieu of the more capacious words "or any other metal or metals," hereinbefore disclaimed.

An alteration in the specification of the said invention, by inserting the words "several of them," between the sixteenth and seventeenth words of the following sentence therein, "all which articles have been hitherto usually made out of a great number of pieces, and with a greater number and extent of brazed joints than are required according to my said improvement."

An alteration in the said specification, by inserting the words "and tin plate," in lieu of the words "and plate of other rolled and laminated metals," sixthly hereinbefore disclaimed.

An alteration in the said specification, by adding the words "or of tin plate," between the twenty-second and twenty-third words of the following sentence therein, "the lids for tea kettles or saucepans may be made of iron, or of iron tinned, in the mode hereinbefore described, as well as of copper."

An alteration in the said specification, in the claiming part thereof at the conclusion, by adding the words "or tin plate," immediately before the words "with fewer pieces and fewer seams than heretofore required."—Dated the 16th day of March 1846.
