

be assigned in perpetuity to the Worshipful Henry Raikes, Chancellor of the said diocese of Chester, the Reverend Hugh M'Neile, Minister of the church of Saint Jude, in the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill in the said diocese of Chester, Andrew Hamilton, of Streatham, in the county of Surrey, Esquire, James John Cummins, of Brixton, in the said county of Surrey, Esquire, and the Honourable Francis Maude, of Gloucester-terrace, Regent's-park, in the county of Middlesex, Captain in Her Majesty's Navy, as trustees duly nominated to us for that purpose, and that such patronage and right of nomination shall for ever thereafter be exercised by the same persons, or the survivors or survivor of them, as such trustees, and by such future trustee or trustees, being a member or members of the United Church of England and Ireland, as shall from time to time be nominated by writing under the hands or hand of the trustees or trustee for the time being, or the major part of them, in the place and stead of any one or more of them who shall from time to time die, resign, or become incapable of acting; provided always, that the number of such trustees shall not at any time exceed five; and that the aforesaid patronage and right of nomination may be exercised by the majority of the trustees for the time being.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

" The district of CASTLE HALL, being—

" All that part of the district of Dukinfield, in the parish of Stockport, in the county and diocese of Chester, situate on the eastern side of an imaginary line, commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan herewith) on the northern boundary of the said district of Dukinfield, and at the southern end of the bridge over the river Tame, near Castle-street, and thence extending first southward along the middle of such street, and then eastward, along the middle of the same street, to a point (marked b as aforesaid) opposite to the middle of Canal-street, and thence southward, in a straight direction, along the middle of such last-mentioned street, as far as the boundary of the said district of Dukinfield."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the church of the parish, and of the church or chapel of the district, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and whereas one calendar month has expired since such draft was so transmitted, and no objections have made thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 25th day of February 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared; and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting
