PROCLAMATION by the Governor General of India.

Camp, Lulleeanee, February 18, 1846.

THE Chiefs, Merchants, Traders, Ryots, and other Inhabitants of Lahore and Umritsur are hereby informed, that His Highness Maha Raja Dhuleep Sing has this day waited upon the Right Honourable the Governor General, and expressed the contrition of himself and the Sikh Government for their late hostile proceedings. The Maha Rajah and Durbar having acquiesced in all the terms imposed by the British Government, the Governor General, having every hope that the relations of friendship will speedily be established between the two Governments, the inhabitants of Lahore and Umritsur have nothing to fear from the British Army.

The Governor General and the British Troops, if the conditions above adverted to are fulfilled, and no further hostile opposition is offered by the Khalsa Army, will aid their endeavours for the re-establishment of the Government of the descendants of Maharajah Runjeet Sing, and for the protection of its subjects.

The inhabitants of the cities in the Punjab will, in that case, be perfectly safe, in person and property, from any molestation by the British Troops; and they are hereby called upon to dismiss apprehension, and to follow their respective callings with all confidence.

By order of the Right Honourable the Governor General of India,

F. CURRIE, Secretary to the Government of India, with the Governor General.
