TUESDAY, APRIL 21, 1846.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 6th day of April 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second session of Parliament held in the fifth year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a prison at Pentonville," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to nominate and appoint any number of fit persons, not being less than seven or more than eleven, to be Commissioners for governing the said prison; now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to nominate and appoint Benjamin Hawes, Esq. M.P. and Joseph Henry Green, of Hadley, Esq. to be two of the Commissioners for governing the Pentonville Prison, in the room of James Archibald Lord Wharncliffe, deceased, and Charles Duke of Richmond, K.G. resigned; and they are hereby nominated and appointed such Commissioners accordingly.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 6th day of April 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for granting to Her Majesty, for a term to be limited, certain duties on sugar imported into the United Kingdom," it was enacted, that from and after the fourteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, there should be charged, amongst other duties of Customs, the following (that is to say):

On sugar the growth and produce of China, Java, or Manilla, or of any foreign country the sugars of which Her Majesty in Council should have declared, or might thereafter declare, to be admissible as not being the produce of slave labour, and which should be imported into the United Kingdom, either from the country of its growth or from some British possession, having
