

Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen, on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ The district of SAINT PAUL, HIGH ELSWICK, being—

“ All that part of the township of Elswick, in the parochial chapelry of Saint John, in the parish of Saint Nicholas, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham, situate on the northern side of an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) on the boundary of such township, in the middle of Elswick Dean-bridge, and thence extending eastward along the middle of the Scotswood-bridge turnpike road, and of Hinde-street, as far as the eastern boundary of such township, and also all that part of the township of West-gate, in the same chapelry, situate on the western side of an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked b as aforesaid) in the street or road called Gallow-gate, on the boundary of the said chapelry, opposite to the middle of the Back-lane, otherwise called Oyster Shell-hall-lane, and thence extending towards the south west along the middle of such lane to a point (marked c as aforesaid) opposite to the middle of Abinger-street, and thence towards the north west along the middle of such street as far as the middle of Tindal-street, and thence southward along the middle of such last-mentioned street as far as the middle of the Newcastle and Carlisle turnpike road, and thence eastward along the middle of such turnpike road to a point (marked d as aforesaid) opposite to the middle of Elswick-lane, and thence towards the south west along the middle of such last-mentioned lane as far as the township of Elswick aforesaid.”

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the church of the parish, and of the church or chapel of the chapelry, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and whereas one calendar month has expired since such draft was so transmitted, and no objections have been made thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette,
