Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 6th day of April 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the "church building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Droxford and Bishops Waltham, in the county of Southampton, and within the diocese of Winchester, it appears to them to be expedient to unite certain contiguous parts of the said parishes, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry, for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated church of Saint Barnabas, situate at Swanmore, in the said parish of Droxford, under the provisions of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the "church building Acts;" and that such consolidated chapelry should be named, "The Consolidated Chapelry of Swanmore;" the same being bounded on the south west by the chapelry district of Shidfield; on the north west by a line drawn, in a north easterly direction, from the most northerly point (marked by a boundary stone) of the said chapelry district of Shidfield, across the said parish of Bishops Waltham, to the most westerly point of the said parish of Droxford,

so as to include, within the said consolidated chapelry of Swanmore, that portion of the said parish of Bishops Waltham which lies on the south eastern side of the said line; and, from that point, the said consolidated chapelry of Swanmore is bounded by the said parish of Bishops Waltham to a little beyond the northern corner of Little Phrymph-copse, where the boundary of such parish diverges from the Dundridge road; on the north and north east the said consolidated chapelry is bounded by the remaining part of the said parish of Droxford, from which it is separated by proceeding in an easterly direction, in a straight line from the point last mentioned, to the house called Swanmore-farm, and, passing down a valley south easterly, crosses the lane at the foot of May-hill, and passes on towards the lane leading to Goodwin's-farm; it then proceeds south westerly, down the middle of that lane, towards the church at Swanmore, till it meets a footpath leading in a south easterly direction to the road which passes in front of Hill-place, along which footpath it then proceeds as far as the said road, and, crossing the same, continues in a straight line south easterly till it falls into the Droxford and Wickham road, at the intersection of that road with another road leading to Hambledon, southwards of St. Clair's-farm, along which latter road it proceeds as far as the river Drox; and on the south east the said consolidated chapelry is bounded by the said river Drox, which separates the said parish of Droxford from the parish of Somerton, as far as the said chapelry district of Shidfield, as the same is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured green and red :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it has been mutually agreed between them and the Right Reverend Charles Richard Bishop of Winchester, who is, in right of his see, patron of the rectories or parish churches of the said parishes of Droxford and Bishops Waltham, that the right of presentation, nomination, and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to the said church and consolidated chapelry of Swanmore should belong to, be in, and be exercised (when occasion may require) by the rector for the time being of the said parish of Droxford :
