

" SCHEDULE.

" The district of SAINT PAUL, LLANELLY, being—

" All that part of the parish of Llanelly, in the county of Carmarthen, and in the diocese of St. David's, situate on the southern side of an imaginary line extending in a straight direction eastward from high-water mark to the north eastern angle of the Union Tavern, near the Harbour-office, and thence along the middle of the road or footpath leading to Llanelly to the south eastern angle of the garden and premises belonging to J. T. Wedge, Esquire, and now or lately in the occupation of Mr. Samuel Heinekin and Mr. Edward Leigh, and thence in a straight direction through certain lands belonging to W. Chambers and R. S. Pemberton, Esquires, to the western entrance of a certain tunnel belonging to the said R. S. Pemberton, and thence along such tunnel as far as the middle of the parish road from Llanelly to Transtre, and thence along the middle of such last-mentioned road as far as the northern boundary of Transtre Farm, and thence along such boundary as far as the river Dafen, and on the western side of an imaginary line extending southward from the termination of the first-mentioned imaginary line along the eastern bank of the said river Dafen as far as the road and embankment separating certain lands belonging to J. D. Llewellyn and R. J. Nevill, Esquires, and thence along such road and embankment to a certain field or enclosure belonging to Lord Cawdor, and thence continuing in a straight direction southward as far as high-water mark."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the church of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and such incumbent and patron have respectively consented to the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of St. David's.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 6th day of April 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act for the further amendment of the church building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, viz.

" Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled " An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches," beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last Parliamentary census was taken, the united parish of Saint John the Baptist and Saint Mary the Virgin, in the town of Cardiff, in the
