

the Virgin, and which have been separately commuted at the annual sum of sixty-one pounds twelve shillings, should belong and be paid to the Vicar of such last-mentioned parish of Saint Mary the Virgin for the time being:

“ And your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that the estimated amount of the relative proportions of tithes, moduses, and endowments, belonging or accruing to the Vicar of each of the said two parishes, will be one hundred and six pounds one shilling and seven pence to the Vicar of the said parish of Saint John the Baptist, and sixty-one pounds twelve shillings to the Vicar of the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin:

“ And your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it is estimated that the annual amount of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, including pew rents, which will arise and accrue to the Vicar of the said parish of Saint John the Baptist will be about one hundred and one pounds sixteen shillings, and that the annual amount of those which will arise and accrue to the Vicar of the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin will be about one hundred and thirty-eight pounds thirteen shillings and four pence:

“ And your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it will be expedient that a certain annual payment of two pounds three shillings and four pence to Captain Penrice, and his heirs, now charged upon the united benefices of Saint John the Baptist and Saint Mary the Virgin, in Cardiff aforesaid, should, from and after the proposed disunion and division of the said two parishes shall have taken effect, be borne and paid in equal moieties by and out of the revenues of the respective benefices of Saint John the Baptist and Saint Mary the Virgin, Cardiff:

“ That the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Bishop of Llandaff, as Bishop of the diocese, and of the Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church of Gloucester, as the patrons of the said united vicarages or parishes of Saint John the Baptist and Saint Mary the Virgin, Cardiff, have been severally obtained thereto, as required by the sixteenth section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Edward Bishop of Llandaff has signed and sealed this representation; and the said Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church of Gloucester have caused their common or chapter seal to be hereunto affixed:

“ Your Majesty’s said Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the above-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of glebe land, tithes, moduses, and endowments, fees, oblations, offerings, and other ecclesiastical dues or profits, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 6th day of April 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty’s reign, intituled “ An Act for the general regulation of the Customs,” whereby it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the several sorts of goods enumerated in the table therein following, denominated “ a table of prohibitions and restrictions inwards,” shall either be absolutely prohibited to be imported, or shall be imported only under the restrictions mentioned in such table :

And whereas, among other sorts of goods, the following are enumerated in the said table, viz.

“ Goods of places within the limits of the East India Company’s charter, unless into ports approved of by the Lords of the Treasury, and declared, by Order in Council, to be fit and proper for such importation :”

And whereas the port of Preston has been approved of by the Lords of Her Majesty’s Treasury for that purpose :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Preston
