

on the Hills of St. Thomas and St. George; and that the Duke of Lorraine, having received the news of it was march'd with the Imperial Army, except such Troops as it was thought necessary to leave before Newbesel to make good that Siege, towards the Enemy to give them Battle. The Auxiliary Forces of Cologne and those of the Circle of Frankonia had join'd the Army, which was then above 50000 strong. The Turks it's said are between 50 and 50000, but the greatest part of them new raised Men.

Hamburgh, August 6. They write from Holslein that the King of Denmark is expected there in his return from Norway about the 20th of this month, and that they are accordingly making preparations for his Majesty's reception. We are told that they have discovered in several places of Norway, Mines of Silver, Copper, and Iron, from whence they hope to draw very great Advantage. The Count de Cheverney, Ambassador Extraordinary from France, is arriv'd at Copenhagen. The Magistrates of this City have writt'n a very respectful Letter to the Emperor, wherein they pray his Imperial Majesty to permit them to send Deputies to Vienna, to justify their Proceedings with relation to those Persons that were some time since Banish'd by them, and who thereupon Address'd themselves to his Imperial Majesty for his Protection; As likewise to give his Imperial Majesty an account of the Differences now depending between the Duke of Zell and this City.

Cologn, August 14. On Saturday last the Imperial Ban against Nicholas Gulicke, Abraham Saxen, and Anthony Meebovius, who have been the chief Authors of the Disorders that have so long disturb'd the Peace of this City, was published by the Commissioners of the Elector of Trier and the Duke of Fuliers; By which all People are forbid to have any Commerce or Correspondence with the said three Persons, or to receive, harbor, or assist them, on pain of suffering the same punishment; And a Reward is offer'd to such as shall bring them in alive or dead, with liberty to take and seize any of their Goods moveable or immoveable. In the mean time the Magistrates and the Company of Trades have been several times assembled, and have resolv'd (four of the said Companies still opposing it) to submit to the Imperial Commission, and this afternoon the Burghmaster Rodenkirch with two Deputies from the Burghers, are gone to Mulheim to acquaint the Deputies of the Elector of Trier and the Duke of Fuliers therewith, and to receive their Proposals thereupon. The Duke of Fuliers arriv'd last night at Bragh, two German miles from hence, having hasten'd his return to give the greater vigour by his presence to the Emperor's Commission. And the Emperor, we are told, has writt'n to the Directors of the Circle of Westphalia to furnish their Quota of Troops in case there shall be need of them to reduce this City to their Duty. They write from Heydelberg that the Elector Palatin was to make as yesterday his Publick Entry into that City.

Brussels, August 17. We are with great impatience expecting our Letters from Vienna, believing they will bring the news of a Battle between the Imperialists and the Turks; Our last which wer'd of the 5th Instant telling us, that the Elector of Bavaria, the Duke of Lorraine, and Prince Waldeck were march'd to fight the Enemy, having left 16000 Men to continue the Siege of Newbesel.

Marseilles, August 6. The French Gallies, 15 in number, under the Command of the Duke de Mortemar are return'd from the Coast of Italy; And as many more are fitting out here, which will be ready to sail in few days. Two Men of War are arriv'd at Thoulon with 182 Slaves releas'd at Trippoli; From whence the Marschal d'Estres is gone with nine Ships and four Gallies carrying Mortars to Tunisi to confirm our Peace with those People.

Paris, August 22. The King has fix'd his journey to Chambor for the 30th of this month. The Marquis de Saignelay parted from hence the last week to visit our Ports in Britany and Provence. The King has nam'd the Abbot of Bezons to be Bishop of Aire, and the Abbot of Moretz to be Bishop of Rice. The News we had of the arrival of the New Spain Fleet, is confirm'd. The last Letters from Germany gave an account that the Duke of Lorraine was march'd with 35000 Men to fight the Turks who had besieg'd Gran.

Tork, August 8. This Evening was brought hither his Majesty's Royal Charter to this City by Sir Henry Thompson of Castlegate and Mr. Scot, being met at some distance from hence by a great many Horse and Foot to the number of near 5000, and received at the Gate of the City by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council in their Formalities, who pass'd from thence amidst the continu'd Acclamations of the People, with Drums beating and Trumpets sounding to the Lord Mayor's House, where the whole Company drank their Majesty's Healths; The Streets were fill'd with Bonfires, the Musick played, the Bells rung, and nothing was omitted that might on this occasion express the Duty and Loyalty of the Inhabitants of this City.

Plimouth, August 11. This day came into this Port between 50 and 60 Sail of Merchant Ships of the Fleet that sail'd lately out of the Downs; the rest are expected to morrow, the Wind at S. W.

Advertisements.

A Gold Watch was found at the Queens-Head Tavern over against the Middle-Temple-Gate in Fleet-Street. Whoever comes and describes the true Marks of it to the Master of the House, shall have it again.

Lost on Monday or Tuesday last about the Royal Exchange, a Red Letter-Cafe with several Papers and Accompts in it. Whoever gives notice of it to Mr. Bishop a Packer in Throgmorton Street, shall have a Guinea reward.

Lost the 10th of this Instant between Coltsworth and Grantham, a Silver Watch with a Studded Case, made by Samuel Marchant, London. Whoever brings it to Mr. Thomas Ireland at the George at Grantham in Yorkshire, or to Mr. John Hancock, Stationer, at the Three Bibles in Cornhill near the Royal Exchange, shall have a Guinea reward.

Stolen or strayed the 11th of this Instant from Henry Cane of Hillingdon in the County of Middlesex, a black Taw'd Leg'd Blood Hound Dog, mark'd with an H on the farther Shoulder, a little piece of his Tail cut off, his Ears whole. Whoever gives notice of the Hound to the said Mr. Cane, or to Mr. John Coggs, Goldsmith against St. Clements Church, London, so as he may be had again, shall have 20 shillings reward.

A Bright bay Gelding about seven years old 15 hands high, all his Paces, lately Dockt, white about the Pundament, with a Red Leather Saddle mark'd L P, was Rid from the Checker Inn in Canterbury, by a man in a gray Coat, pretty tall, Disfigur'd by the Small-Pox; on the 27th of July last. Whoever gives notice of him to Robert Palmer, at the Checker Inn in Canterbury, or to Tho. Riley in Green Dragon-Court Southwark, shall have a Guinea Reward.

Stolen or strayed from the Pasture-Ground about Illington, on Tuesday night being the 11th of this Instant; A black Mare of about 8 years old, betwixt 14 and 15 hands high; and also a black gelt Colt of two years old. Whoever gives notice of them to William Norman of Illington aforesaid, so as they may be restor'd to him again shall have thirty Shillings Reward.

Lost on Monday night last between Blacknbury and the Temple, a Hammock Cloth for a Coach-Horse of a dark Hair-colour Cloth Embroider'd with Red and White, with a Cypher of R B in the corner. Whoever shall bring it to Mr. Frogg at the Phoenix in the Haymarket, shall have Ten Shillings reward.