

1878

Young Douglas, out of the estate of the said insolvent, such sum or sums of money as may then be agreed upon, in liquidation and discharge of the costs, charges, and expences by her incurred in defending the said suit, or which may have been occasioned to her, directly or indirectly, in consequence of such suit, or in any manner in reference thereto, or to pay off the same costs, charges, and expences, upon the same being ascertained, as between solicitor and client; and also to authorize the said assignee to put up for sale by public auction, or to sell by private contract, the reversionary estate and interest of the said insolvent in certain messuages, tenements, and premises called Vronscawen, Blaendyffryn, and Fynnondyfflyn, in the parish of Llanboidy, in the county of Carmarthen, and in like manner to sell, dispose of, and assign all other estates, mortgage charges, and interest which the said insolvent may have in the same messuage, tenement, and premises, or any part or parts thereof.—Dated this 14th day of May 1846.

All Letters must be Post-paid.

Printed and Published at the Office, in Cannon-row, Parliament-street, by FRANCIS WATTS, of No. 1, Warwick-square, Belgrave-road.

Tuesday, May 19, 1846.

Price Two Shillings and Eight Pence.