TUESDAY, JUNE 2, 1846.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 18, 1846.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birth-day will be celebrated on Tuesday the 9th of June next.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 19th day of May 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the church building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Bishops

Cannings and Bromham, in the county of Wilts, and within the diocese of Salisbury, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous parts of the said parishes of Bishops Cannings and Bromham, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Chittoe, in the said parish of Bishops Cannings, for all ecclesiastical purposes, under the provisions of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the church building Acts;" and that such consolidated chapelry should be called, "The Consolidated Chapelry of Chittoe;" and be bounded as follows, that is to say:

"On the north by the parish of Lacock; on the north east, and partly on the east, by that part of the consolidated district of Christ Church, Derry-hill, which is taken from the parishes of Chippenham and Bishops Cannings; and on other part of the east, that is to say, from the point where such consolidated district meets the roads from Calne to Melksham and from Chippenham to Devizes, by a line drawn, in a southerly direction, down the middle of the said last-mentioned road from Chippenham to Devizes as far as the road to West Brook Green; on or towards the south, the boundary is formed by proceeding along the middle of the said last-mentioned road to West Brook Green in a westerly direction, including also, within the said consolidated chapelry of Chittoe, all the houses abutting on the south side of the said road, and being within a line drawn, at a distance of eighty feet from the middle of the said road, as far as the westernmost side of West Brook Green; the boundary then turns, in a northerly direction, up the western side of the said green, as far as West-lane; when it proceeds, in a westerly direction, to the last cottage in the said lane, including all the cottages abutting on the south side of the said lane within the said consolidated chapelry of Chittoe; it then turns northerly through Prickmoor Wood till it reaches Chittoe Brook, along the course of which brook it proceeds westerly to the point where the three parishes of Bishops Cannings, Melksham, and Bromham meet; and on the west, the boundary is formed by the parish of Melksham, as is more particularly shewn on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink and green:

“Your Majesty’s Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it has been mutually agreed between the patrons of the parish churches of the said parish of Bishops Cannings and Bromham, with the approbation of your Majesty’s said Commissioners, and also with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Bishop of Salisbury, in whose diocese the said parishes are situate, that the right of presentation, nomination, and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to the said church of Saint Mary and consolidated chapelry of Chittoe should belong to, be in, and be exercised, when occasion may require, by the said Edward Bishop of Salisbury, and by his successors, bishops of Salisbury, for ever:

“That the consents of the said Edward Bishop of Salisbury, as Bishop of the diocese, and also of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Mary the Virgin at Salisbury, as patrons of the parish church of the said parish of Bishops Cannings, and of Charlotte Starky, of Spey-park, in the said county of Wilts, widow as patron, in trust, of the parish church of the said parish of Bromham, have been severally obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section before stated; and in testimony whereof, the said Edward Bishop of Salisbury, the said Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Mary the Virgin at Salisbury, and the said Charlotte Starky, have severally signed and sealed this representation:

“Your Majesty’s Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed consolidation and assignment be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS by our Order in Council of this day’s date, we were graciously pleased, for the reasons therein contained, to annul the Royal Proclamation of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, of the third day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, directing that distribution should be made of the net proceeds of prizes captured from the enemy, of captures and seizures under the several Acts passed relating to the revenues of customs, and to trade and navigation, for the abolition of the slave trade, and for the capture and destruction of piratical vessels, and of the rewards conferred for the same, according to the scheme therein set forth; and it is expedient that provision should be made by us for the future distribution of such proceeds or rewards; we do make known to all our loving subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this our Proclamation, by and with the advice and consent of our Privy Council, that our royal will and pleasure is, and we do hereby direct, that the distribution of such proceeds and rewards shall be made in the following manner, viz.

That flag officers or officer, commodores of the first class, and captains of the fleet, shall have one sixteenth of the net proceeds arising from prizes captured from the enemy, and from all other captures, seizures, head moneys, grants, and bounties as aforesaid, made by the ships and vessels under his or their command, save and except in the cases herein-after submitted.

That when ships or vessels under the command of several flag officers which belong to separate stations shall happen to be joint captors, each flag officer, under whose orders each ship or vessel may be, shall receive a portion of the flag share of one sixteenth of the net proceeds in proportion to the number of officers and men present under the command of each such flag officer; and the same regulation as to the apportionment of the flag share is to be observed when ships or vessels under orders from the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, shall be joint captors with ships or vessels under a flag or flags.

And we do hereby further direct, that the following regulations be observed in respect to the distribution of the remaining portion of the net proceeds of prizes, captures, seizures, and rewards before mentioned (after the deduction of the flag share of one sixteenth), or of the whole amount of such net proceeds in the cases herein-before provided, where no flag officer shall be entitled to share.

Whitehall, June 2, 1846.

The following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, having been transmitted by the Most Honourable John Marquess of Bute, K. T. Her Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Sir James Robert George Graham, Bart. one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the Queen, which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE have received, with lively gratitude, the gracious letter in which your Majesty has been pleased to express hearty approbation of our assembling on the present occasion, and to renew the assurance of your regard and affection for the Church of Scotland, and of your resolution to uphold it in the full enjoyment of all its rights and privileges.

It is most gratifying to us to know that in all our endeavours to promote the interests of religion we may rely, as heretofore, on your Majesty's countenance and support.

We trust that, through the Grace of God, we shall be enabled so to conduct all our proceedings that your Majesty's confidence in the wisdom and moderation of our deliberations may in no degree be disappointed, and we unite with your Majesty in praying for that Divine blessing through which alone our counsels can possess any efficacy in promoting spiritual and moral improvement among the people of whom we have the oversight.

We esteem it one of the most decisive and pleasing indications of your Majesty's good will to this National Church, that the high honour of representing your Royal Person in the General Assembly has again been conferred on a Nobleman so universally revered and loved as the Marquess of Bute, who, distinguished as he has ever been for his piety, integrity, benevolence, and public spirit, possesses peculiar claims on our attachment, in consequence of the surpassing liberality and zeal with which he has long been accustomed to devote himself to the promotion of the sacred interests of Christianity.

Our best thanks are due to your Majesty for the renewed grant of two thousand pounds for reformation of the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, and we pledge ourselves to use our best endeavours for the due application of this sum to the important purposes for which it is destined.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may pour out his richest blessings on your Majesty, on the Prince Albert, on the Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family; that your reign may be distinguished by the flourishing of arts and commerce, by national prosperity, by universal peace, and, above all, by the enlargement of the Kingdom of the Redeemer; and that, after long swaying the sceptre over an enlightened, religious, and happy people, you may be exalted to the glory and felicity of heaven, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most loyal, and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders convened in the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by James Paull, D. D. Moderator.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in this General Assembly, avail ourselves of this early opportunity to express to your Royal Highness our cordial congratulations on the birth of a Princess, and on the favourable accounts of the state of Her Majesty's health; and to assure your Royal Highness of our fervent prayer to God, that your Royal Highness may be long spared to be a blessing to Her Majesty, and to discharge your important duties as the Father of a Royal Race.

Given at Edinburgh, this 28th day of May 1846, by your Royal Highness's most faithful, obedient, and devoted servants, the Ministers and Elders, met in this General Assembly, of the Church of Scotland.
