

and also all that part of the township of Cramlington in the chapelry of Cramlington in the same county and diocese, situate on the southern side of an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked c as aforesaid) on the boundary between such last-mentioned township and the township of Horton, at the north east corner of a certain field called Brackney Beds Field, belonging to George Shum Storey, Esquire, and now in the occupation of Joseph Lamb and partners, and thence extending southward along the northern boundary of such last-mentioned field, and on the eastern side of an imaginary line extending southward along the western side of such field as far as the middle of the road leading from Cramlington to Seaton Delaval aforesaid, and thence westward along the middle of such road to a point (marked d as aforesaid) opposite the north western corner of a certain field called the Camp Field, belonging to the said George Shum Storey, Esquire, and now in the occupation of Joseph Lamb and partners, and thence extending southward along the western boundary of such field until the same meets the boundary of the township of Sighill aforesaid."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patrons of the church of the parish, and to the incumbent and patron of the church or chapel of the chapelry, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act for making better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes;" and whereas one calendar month has expired since such draft was so transmitted, and certain objections to the said scheme, offered by the incumbent of the said parish of Earsdon, have been laid before Her Majesty in Council, together with such scheme :

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding such objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the first-recited Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

Wm. L. Bathurst.
