

Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," be assigned to the consecrated chapel called Saint James's Chapel, situate at a place called New Chapel, in the said parish of Wolstanton, and that such district should be named, "The Chapelry District of Saint James New Chapel," and be bounded as follows :

"Commencing at the west corner of Brieryhurst at the point marked A on the plan herein-after referred to, where the parishes of Audley, Wolstanton, and Lawton meet, and proceeding in a north eastwardly direction along the boundary line of the parishes of Wolstanton and Lawton, as far as the road leading from Hall-green to New Chapel, and along the said road, in an easterly direction, twice crossing the railroad belonging to the Trubshaw Colliery, and up a lane called Alderhay-lane, in a north eastwardly direction, keeping the south eastern side of the said road to the point, where the townships of Brieryhurst, Stadmoreslow, and Thursfield meet; then turning in a south eastwardly direction along the boundary line of Stadmoreslow and Thursfield townships until it meets a road called Long-lane, along which lane it then proceeds, keeping on the south side thereof, in an eastwardly direction, as far as the parish of Biddulph; thence proceeding in a north eastwardly direction along the boundary line which separates the parish of Wolstanton from the parishes of Biddulph and Norton in the Moors to the point where a brook course which runs at the bottom or south side of the Heathfield belonging to Charles Bowyer Adderley, Esq. at the point E on the plan; then turning westwardly up the last-mentioned brook course, where the parishes of Burslem, Norton in the Moors, and Wolstanton meet; thence westwardly, along the boundary line of the parishes of Wolstanton and Burslem as far as Chell-brook, at the point G on the plan, and along the said brook course, in a northerly direction, to the point marked H on the plan, where the township of Tunstall, Oldcott, and Thursfield join, still in a north eastwardly direction along the brook to Colclough-lane, crossing the said lane and continuing northwardly along the boundary line dividing the township of Oldcott, from the township of Thursfield to the point where the township of Brieryhurst joins the townships of Oldcott and Thursfield; thence in a southwardly direction to a brook course which separates the townships of Oldcott and Brieryhurst; and then proceeding in a westwardly direction along the brook course to the point A, being the south point of the coal wharf belonging to Thomas Kinnersley, Esq. where the boundary commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured red :

"That banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel, called Saint James's Chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should be reserved for, on account of, and paid to, the present Vicar of the said parish of Wolstanton during his incumbency thereof; but, upon his avoiding the vicarage or parish church of the said parish of Wolstanton, the said fees should belong to the incumbent for the time being of the said chapel, called Saint James's Chapel :

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lichfield has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said John Bishop of Lichfield has signed and sealed this representation :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

Wm. L. Bathurst.