“ SCHEDULE.

“ The district of CHESTERTON, being—

“ All that part of the parish of Audley-cum-Talk, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, and also all that part of the parish of Wolstanton, in the same county and diocese, comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) to the south of the Apedale Furnaces, where the boundary of the lordship of Apedale joins that of the township or liberty of Chesterton, and thence extending westward along the southern boundary of the said lordship to the middle of the road leading from Alsager’s Bank to Newcastle, and thence towards the north west along the middle of such road to a point (marked b as aforesaid) opposite to the south east corner of a certain field called Delph Hay, now in the occupation of Joseph Brayford, and thence towards the south west along the boundary of the said lordship to the boundary between such lordship and the parish of Keele, in the same county and diocese, thence northward along the boundary of such last-mentioned parish to the middle of the road leading from Podmore Hall to Scot Hay, and thence westward along the middle of such road to the eastern boundary of the parish of Madeley, in the same county and diocese, and thence northward along such last-mentioned boundary as far as Hayes Wood, and thence first eastward along the southern and eastern boundary of such Wood to the north western corner (marked c as aforesaid) of a certain field called Bankey Field, now in the occupation of Benjamin Leighton, and thence eastward along the northern boundary fence of such last-mentioned field, and northward along the western boundary fences of two other fields (marked respectively d and e as aforesaid), to the middle of the road leading from Nantwich to Audley, and thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned road to a point (marked f as aforesaid) opposite to the middle of Halmerend Lane, and thence towards the south east along the middle of such lane, as far as a certain open space called the Green, and thence eastward along the northern boundary of the said green, and towards the north east along the middle of another lane called Holly Lane as far as Miles Green, and thence towards the south east along the middle of a certain lane leading thence to Wood Lane, and in the same direction along the middle of such last-mentioned lane to a point (marked g as aforesaid) opposite to the middle of Megacre Lane, and thence towards the north east along the middle of such last-mentioned lane to a point (marked h as aforesaid) opposite to the north eastern corner of another field called Megacre Field, and now in the occupation of Arthur Tomkinson, and thence southward along the north eastern boundary of the said lordship of Apedale as far as the township of Chesterton aforesaid, and thence eastward along the northern boundary of such township as far as the township of Chatterley, and thence in the same direction along the northern boundary of such township as far as the middle of the new road from Newcastle to Talk o’ the Hill, and thence southward along the middle of such road to a point (marked i as aforesaid) where the same crosses the south eastern boundary of the said township of Chesterton, and near a certain public footpath from the village of Chesterton to Wolstanton, and thence first towards the south west along such last-mentioned boundary to the point where the said imaginary line commenced.”

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the churches of the parishes out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and such incumbents and patrons have respectively consented to the said scheme :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.
