

Order ratifying the same, made by your Majesty in Council on the twenty-eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and duly gazetted, the district of Saint Andrew, Leeds, was duly constituted out of the district of Saint George, Leeds, in the parish of Leeds, in the said county and diocese; and, a church having been duly approved by us and consecrated as the church of the said district for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, such district has since become, under the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, by the name of "The New Parish of Saint Andrew, Leeds:"

"And whereas the said scheme and Order contained no provision respecting the right of patronage of the said district or new parish, after the two first nominations of the minister or perpetual curate thereto:

"And whereas certain persons have contributed a sum of twelve hundred pounds, to be applied towards the erection of a house of residence for the perpetual curate of such new parish:

"And whereas the principal contributors towards such house of residence have, by an instrument in writing under their hands, nominated to us John Gott, of Leeds aforesaid, Esquire, as the future patron in perpetuity of such new parish, after the next nomination of a perpetual curate thereto:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Leeds, and the nomination of the perpetual curate thereof, shall, after the next such nomination, be assigned to, and absolutely vested in, the said John Gott, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of July 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the 1st day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parishes of Perranzabuloe, Saint Agnes, Kenwyn, and Kea, and the district of Chacewater, all in the county of Cornwall, and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by
