

Sirhowy Ironworks, at a distance of eighty links, or thereabouts, east of the parish road leading to Mamole, and thence northward in a straight direction to the point where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the churches of the parishes, and to the incumbent and patron of the church or chapel of the district, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and whereas one calendar month has expired since such draft was so transmitted, and no objections have been made thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the dioceses of Llandaff and Saint David's.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of August 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Cheltenham, in the county of Gloucester, and within the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," be assigned to the consecrated church, called Saint Paul's Church, situate in the said parish of Cheltenham, and that such district should be called, "the Chapelry District of Saint Paul, Cheltenham," with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned :

"The boundary commences in the middle of High-street, opposite to White Hart-row, and proceeds in a northerly direction, in a straight line up the middle of White Hart-row, and also of a new and unfinished street or road, situate at the western end of the Cheltenham workhouse, and called the Workhouse-road, as far as the middle of Maidenhorn-lane; and thence, easterly, along the middle of Maidenhorn-lane as far as the road leading to Marl-hill; up the middle of which road it then proceeds, northerly, as far as Weyman's-brook, where it meets the boundary line of the parishes of Cheltenham and Prestbury; it then proceeds, in a south easterly direction, along the boundary line of the said parishes as far as the Cleeve-road, it then proceeds, in a southerly direction, down the middle of the said road as far as the termination of Pittville-parade, and then turning, north westerly, up the middle of a road leading into Clarence-square as far as North-place; it then proceeds, south westerly, down the middle of North-place and enters the Back-street, and then proceeds, in a north westerly direction, up the middle of the Back-street as far as Henrietta-street, down the middle of which street it then proceeds, southerly, into High-street; and then, turning north westerly, proceeds up the middle of High-street to the point opposite White Hart-row, where the boundary commenced, as the whole of such district is more particularly