

Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of August 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Alton Pancras, in the county of Dorset, in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Act enacted that, except as therein otherwise specified, all the monies and revenues to be paid to us, and all the rents and profits of the lands, tithes and other hereditaments vested and to be vested in us by and under the authority of that Act, together with all accumulations of interest produced by and arising therefrom, should be from time to time carried over by us to a common fund; and by payments or investments made out of such fund, or if in any case it should be deemed more expedient by means of an actual conveyance and assignment of such lands, tithes or other hereditaments, or of a portion thereof, additional provision should be made, by the authority thereafter provided, for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance was most required, in such manner as by the like authority should be deemed most conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church; provided always, that in making any such additional provision out of any tithes or any lands or other hereditaments allotted or assigned in lieu of tithes so vested or to be vested in us, or out of the rents and profits thereof, due consideration should be had of the wants and circumstances of the places in which such tithes then arose, or had theretofore arisen:

"And whereas, by reason of the vacancy of the respective prebends of Alton Australis and Alton Borealis, in the cathedral church of Salisbury and under the provisions of the said recited Act, all the lands and other hereditaments belonging to the said prebends are, subject to any legally subsisting leases thereof, now vested in us for the purposes of the said recited Act:

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed are part and parcel of the same lands and hereditaments:

"And whereas, by a certain arrangement duly carried out and perfected in law, to which the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne have been parties, the whole interest in and under certain subsisting leases of the said lands and hereditaments so described in the said schedule has been and now is transferred to and vested in the Reverend Robert Shittler, Clerk, Vicar of the said parish of Alton Pancras, and his successors Vicars thereof; and we have deemed it expedient to make additional provision for the cure of souls therein by assigning and confirming to the Vicar thereof our absolute interest in fee simple in the same lands and hereditaments:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that all our estate and interest in the lands and hereditaments so described in the said schedule shall forthwith, and without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, become and be vested in the said Robert Shittler, Vicar of the said parish of Alton Pancras aforesaid, and his successors Vicars of the said parish, for ever.
