The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Kingswinford, in the county of Stafford, and within the diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," be assigned to the consecrated church, called Saint Mary's Church, situate the said parish of Kingswinford, and that such district should be named, "the Chapelry District of Saint Mary, Kingswinford," and be bounded as follows, viz.

"Commencing at a point in the Kidderminster turnpike road opposite to Heath Brook Farm, and proceeding in a south easterly and easterly direction along the middle of the Heath Brook Pool and Dawley Brook, as far as the south eastern boundary of the field No. 2382 on the tithe commutation map of the parish of Kingswinford, when the line proceeds northerly along the eastern fence which separates the said field from the field No. 2383 on the said map, as far as the Ashwood Railway, which it crosses; and then proceeds in an easterly direction along the ditches of the southern fences of three fields numbered, respectively, 2379, 2377, and 2374 on the said map; the boundary then turns northerly and runs along the ditch of the western fence of the Honey Suckle Field, numbered 2333 on the said map, to the south west corner of Helliott's Field, numbered 2334 on the said map, when it proceeds easterly along the ditch of the fence between the said two last-mentioned fields, and from thence in a straight direction between two fields numbered 2327 and 2328, when the line proceeds northerly, up the western fence of enclosure No. 2325 on the said map, to the garden and rick-yard of Becknells Field Farm-house; and then turns easterly, and runs along the northern fence of the said field No. 2325, to a gate in a foredraught leading from the said farm-house to Kingswinford, and crossing the said foredraught turns northerly, and runs along the ditch of the fence on the eastern side of the foredraught, to a stile opposite the corner of the rick-yard; the boundary again turns easterly from the said stile, proceeding along the footpath leading through Mansell's Meadow, No. 2275, into Stalling's-lane, and along the middle of that lane to the bridge over the Stourbridge Extension Canal in Stalling's-lane; it then proceeds southerly down the said canal as far as the bridge in Bromley-lane, at the corner of two fields numbered 989 and 990 on the map; from which bridge it then proceeds in a westerly direction, along the middle of the said lane, passing by Bromley-hall, Coal Leasows, and Burras's-barn, as far as the turnpike gate in the road leading from Stourbridge to Wolverhampton, and crossing the said road runs along the fence between the little and big broad meadows, numbered 2441 and 2444, to Barnet-lane, which lane it crosses and runs along the ditch between two fields, called the House Piece, No. 2470, and the Alms-house Piece, No. 2471, as far as Cort-lane; from thence it proceeds northerly and north westerly along the middle of the said lane, passing by Summer-hill, and continuing up the middle of the road or lane to Heath Brook Farm, as far as the Kidderminster turnpike road, and then north easterly up the middle of that road to the point where the boundaries of the district commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured green:

"That banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said church, and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the incumbent thereof:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lichfield has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section before mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said

John Bishop of Lichfield has signed and sealed this representation:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of August 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Merrington, in the county and diocese of Durham.

"Whereas, upon the passing of the said recited Act, the deanery of the cathedral church of Durham being then vacant, all the estate and interest which the succeeding dean thereof would have had, if the said Act had not been passed (amongst other property usually held or enjoyed with the said deanery), in the tithes hereinafter particularly described, became, by virtue of the said Act, absolutely vested in us and our successors for the purposes of the said Act :

“ And whereas it was by the said Act enacted that, except as therein otherwise specified, all the monies and revenues to be paid to us, and all the rents and profits of the lands, tithes and other hereditaments vested and to be vested in us by and under the authority of that Act, together with all accumulation of interest produced by and arising therefrom, should be from time to time carried over by us to a common fund; and by payments or investments made out of such fund, or if in any case it should be deemed more expedient by means of an actual conveyance and assignment of such lands, tithes or other hereditaments, or of a portion thereof, additional provision should be made, by the authority thereinafter provided, for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance was most required, in such manner as by the like authority should be deemed most conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church; provided always, that in making any such additional provision out of any tithes or any lands or other hereditaments allotted or assigned in lieu of tithes so vested or to be vested in us, or out of the rents and profits thereof, due consideration should be had of the wants and circumstances of the places in which such tithes then arose, or had theretofore arisen :

“ And whereas, after due consideration of the wants and circumstances of the said parish of Merrington, we have deemed it expedient to make additional provision for the cure of souls therein, in manner hereinafter mentioned :

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that all our estate and interest in the tithes of the township of Merrington, in the said parish of Merrington, or the rent charge or rent charges allotted or to be allotted in lieu thereof, shall forthwith and without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same, become and be transferred to and absolutely vested in the Reverend John Tyson, the present Vicar of Merrington in the county and diocese of Durham, and his successors Vicars of Merrington, for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

C. C. Greville.

THE following Addresses were presented to the Queen on the occasion of Her Majesty's late visit to the county of Cornwall, and were very graciously received by Her Majesty :

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Inhabitants of the ancient borough of Fowey and its vicinity, humbly approach your Majesty with our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's arrival in faithful Cornwall, and with the warm expressions of our dutiful attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Five hundred years ago, the gallant ships of Fowey conveyed an armament to the siege of Calais, under the command of their brave townsman, Frisart Bagga, more numerous and formidable than the grand harbour of Plymouth could then supply.

Though time and circumstances have since reduced our ability and importance, we still beg to assure your Majesty, that the loyal inhabitants of Fowey and its vicinity will always be ready to support the mild and maternal Government of your Majesty with zealous and affectionate fidelity.

And we intreat the Giver of all power and pre-eminence among men, by whom alone Queens reign and Princes decree justice, to bless your Majesty and your Royal Consort with long life and prosperity, and to establish your Royal Progeny upon the Throne of these realms to the latest generation.

Jos. Tho. Tuffry, of Place, Fowey, J. P. for the county of Cornwall.

John Kempe, Vicar of Fowey, J. P. for the county of Cornwall.

Fowey, 8th September 1846.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Madam,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of Lostwithiel, beg most respectfully to offer our sincere congratulations to your Majesty on your Majesty's approach to this our ancient borough.

We participate, in common with all your Majesty's subjects, in sentiments of high admiration and affection for your Majesty's most excellent Person, Family, and Government, trusting that, under the blessing of God, your Majesty will long continue to sway the British sceptre in health, happiness, and peace.

J. W. Colenso, Mayor.

Lostwithiel, 8th September 1846.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the borough of Falmouth, again approach your Majesty with an united expression of devoted loyalty and attachment to the Throne and to your Majesty's Person and Government.

In common with the inhabitants of faithful Cornwall, we hail with pride and pleasure your Majesty's second visit to this important and most south western port of your Majesty's dominion, and offer to your Majesty our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's arrival, and our fervent prayers that your Majesty and your Royal Consort may long live to reign over a truly loyal, happy, and contented people.

Wm. R. Broad, Mayor.

Dated 4th September 1846.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the town of Marazion, in Mount's-bay, beg humbly to approach your Majesty, and to express our grateful sense of the great honour conferred on us, not only by your Majesty's most gracious visit to our bay, accompanied by your Majesty's most illustrious Son, the Prince of Wales, and, we are proud to add, Duke of Cornwall, but also by your Majesty's landing at Saint Michael's-mount, within our chapelry.

We beg also most respectfully to express our conviction, that although Cornish loyalty in former times called forth the highest praise from your Majesty's predecessor, King Charles the First, whose laudatory letter still adorns our parish church, which loyalty remains unabated, yet in dutiful attachment to your Majesty we are not behind any of your Majesty's most faithful Cornish subjects.

May He, by whom alone Kings reign, bless your Majesty, and long continue to make your Majesty a blessing to the land.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Clergy, Justices, Aldermen, Councillors, and others, inhabitants of the borough of Penryn, or portion of the county long known by the name of faithful Cornwall, beg most humbly to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt congratulations, and to express our most grateful thanks that your Majesty, by again entering and continuing in the harbour of Falmouth, has given us another opportunity, hitherto seldom afforded by the Sovereigns of Great Britain, personally to declare our unfeigned attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and our firm determination to uphold and support to the utmost of our power our present most excellent and happy constitution.

We cannot conclude this our humble address, without earnestly praying that your Majesty may long be permitted to reign over us in peace and prosperity, and with your illustrious Consort and Royal Family enjoy all happiness and felicity.

Signed on behalf of the Mayor, Clergy, Justices, Aldermen, Councillors, and others, inhabitants of the said borough.

Alexr. Teague, Mayor.

To Her Majesty the QUEEN.

WE, your Majesty's faithful and devoted servants, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Penzance, in the county of Cornwall, hasten, most fervently and sincerely, to offer our earnest welcomes and congratulations on your Majesty's arrival in our bay, now, for the first time, honoured by the presence of Majesty.

We beg to assure your Majesty of our zeal and devoted affection, which, in common with all other your Majesty's subjects in these remote parts of your dominions, have been ever felt for your illustrious House; and we look with proud satisfaction to the term of faithful Cornish, bestowed on us for our loyalty by a former Sovereign of these realms.

May that peace and happiness, which have hitherto brightened and adorned your reign, be continued; and, if the testimonies of the joy felt by the inhabitants of this extreme western part of England on such a happy occasion have been less loud than those which have greeted your Majesty in other parts, our only excuse is, that such is the tranquillity of this part of your Majesty's dominions, and the security we feel under your Majesty's happy Government, that scarcely soldiers or ordnance are to be seen on all our coast.

Penzance, September, 1846.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Councillors, and Burgesses generally of the borough of Truro, most gratefully avail ourselves of the renewed opportunity of welcoming your Majesty to the shores and harbours of Cornwall.

We feel still more deeply sensible of the honour your Majesty confers on us by condescending to visit this our ancient town, the seat of the Stannary Courts, over which your Majesty's revered Consort presides as Lord Warden; and the capital of that ancient duchy, never before so highly honoured, from which your Majesty's beloved eldest son derives his title of Duke of Cornwall; and whilst we regret that buildings essential to the dignity of the duchy, and to the better accommodation of the Municipality of the borough, are at present in an unfinished state, we confidently rely on your Majesty's most gracious indulgence towards any defects arising out of this unavoidable circumstance.

That your Majesty may have a long and prosperous reign, and that Heaven may continue to shed its richest blessings upon your Majesty, your Majesty's most interesting domestic circle, and upon the countless millions over which your gentle and fostering sway extends, is our most fervent prayer.

Given under the common seal of the borough of Truro this 7th day of September 1846.

Clemt. Carlyon, Mayor.

And the following to His Royal Highness the Duke of Cornwall:

To His Royal Highness the DUKE OF CORNWALL.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, Her Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Truro, the chief town of your Royal Highness's ancient duchy of Cornwall, approach your Royal Highness with the warmest expressions of our attachment and affection.

May your Royal Highness long live to honour this ancient duchy, by restoring a title which has been graced and ennobled for many centuries by your Royal Highness's ancestors.

Emulating the virtues of your Royal Parents, may every happiness and fortune attend you, and long may our own Duke increase the splendour and enhance the renown of his ancient and loyal duchy.

Given under the common seal of the borough of Truro this 7th day of September 1846.
