

by any Order in Council, to declare that, from and after a day to be named in such Order, in lieu of the duties of Customs from time to time payable on the importation into the United Kingdom of books, prints, and drawings, there shall be payable only such duties of Customs as are mentioned in the said Act:

And whereas Her Majesty hath this day, by virtue of the authority vested in Her for that purpose, declared that the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of books, prints, and certain other works of art, first published within the dominions of Saxony, shall have the privilege of copyright therein:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in lieu of the duties of Customs now payable upon books, prints, and drawings, published at any place within the dominions of Saxony, there shall be payable only the duties of Customs following (that is to say):

On books originally produced in the United Kingdom, and republished at any place within the dominions of Saxony, a duty of two pounds ten shillings per hundred weight.

On books published or republished at any place within the dominions of Saxony, and not being books originally produced in the United Kingdom, a duty of fifteen shillings per hundred weight.

On prints and drawings, plain or coloured, published at any place within the dominions of Saxony,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Kingswinford, in the county of Stafford, and within the diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," be assigned to the consecrated church, called Saint Mary's Church, situate the said parish of Kingswinford, and that such district should be named, "the Chapelry District of Saint Mary, Kingswinford," and be bounded as follows, viz.

"Commencing at a point in the Kidderminster turnpike road opposite to Heath Brook Farm, and proceeding in a south easterly and easterly direction along the middle of the Heath Brook Pool and Dawley Brook, as far as the south eastern boundary of the field No. 2382 on the tithe commutation map of the parish of Kingswinford, when the line proceeds northerly along the eastern fence which separates the said field from the field No. 2383 on the said map, as far as the Ashwood Railway, which it crosses; and then proceeds in an easterly direction along the ditches of the southern fences of three fields numbered, respectively, 2379, 2377, and 2374 on the said map; the boundary then turns northerly and runs along the ditch of the western fence of the Honey Suckle Field, numbered 2333 on the said map, to the south west corner of Helliott's Field, numbered 2334 on the said map, when it proceeds easterly along the ditch of the fence between the said two last-mentioned fields, and from thence in a straight
