

with the said deanery), in the tithes hereinafter particularly described, became, by virtue of the said Act, absolutely vested in us and our successors for the purposes of the said Act :

“ And whereas it was by the said Act enacted that, except as therein otherwise specified, all the monies and revenues to be paid to us, and all the rents and profits of the lands, tithes and other hereditaments vested and to be vested in us by and under the authority of that Act, together with all accumulation of interest produced by and arising therefrom, should be from time to time carried over by us to a common fund; and by payments or investments made out of such fund, or if in any case it should be deemed more expedient by means of an actual conveyance and assignment of such lands, tithes or other hereditaments, or of a portion thereof, additional provision should be made, by the authority thereinafter provided, for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance was most required, in such manner as by the like authority should be deemed most conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church; provided always, that in making any such additional provision out of any tithes or any lands or other hereditaments allotted or assigned in lieu of tithes so vested or to be vested in us, or out of the rents and profits thereof, due consideration should be had of the wants and circumstances of the places in which such tithes then arose, or had theretofore arisen :

“ And whereas, after due consideration of the wants and circumstances of the said parish of Merrington, we have deemed it expedient to make additional provision for the cure of souls therein, in manner hereinafter mentioned :

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that all our estate and interest in the tithes of the township of Merrington, in the said parish of Merrington, or the rent charge or rent charges allotted or to be allotted in lieu thereof, shall forthwith and without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same, become and be transferred to and absolutely vested in the Reverend John Tyson, the present Vicar of Merrington in the county and diocese of Durham, and his successors Vicars of Merrington, for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

THE following Addresses were presented to the Queen on the occasion of Her Majesty's late visit to the county of Cornwall, and were very graciously received by Her Majesty :

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Inhabitants of the ancient borough of Fowey and its vicinity, humbly approach your Majesty with our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's arrival in faithful Cornwall, and with the warm expressions of our dutiful attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Five hundred years ago, the gallant ships of Fowey conveyed an armament to the siege of Calais, under the command of their brave townsman, Frisart Bagga, more numerous and formidable than the grand harbour of Plymouth could then supply.

Though time and circumstances have since reduced our ability and importance, we still beg to assure your Majesty, that the loyal inhabitants of Fowey and its vicinity will always be ready to support the mild and maternal Government of your Majesty with zealous and affectionate fidelity.

And we intreat the Giver of all power and pre-eminence among men, by whom alone Queens reign and Princes decree justice, to bless your Majesty and your Royal Consort with long life and prosperity, and to establish your Royal Progeny upon the Throne of these realms to the latest generation.

Jos. Tho. Tuffry, of Place, Fowey, J. P. for the county of Cornwall.

John Kempe, Vicar of Fowey, J. P. for the county of Cornwall.

Fowey, 8th September 1846.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Madam,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of Lostwithiel, beg most respectfully to offer our sincere congratulations to your Majesty on your Majesty's approach to this our ancient borough.

We participate, in common with all your Majesty's subjects, in sentiments of high admiration and affection for your Majesty's most excellent Person, Family, and Government, trusting that, under the blessing of God, your Majesty will long continue to sway the British sceptre in health, happiness, and peace.

J. W. Colenso, Mayor.

Lostwithiel, 8th September 1846.
