

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the borough of Falmouth, again approach your Majesty with an united expression of devoted loyalty and attachment to the Throne and to your Majesty's Person and Government.

In common with the inhabitants of faithful Cornwall, we hail with pride and pleasure your Majesty's second visit to this important and most south western port of your Majesty's dominion, and offer to your Majesty our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's arrival, and our fervent prayers that your Majesty and your Royal Consort may long live to reign over a truly loyal, happy, and contented people.

Wm. R. Broad, Mayor.

Dated 4th September 1846.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the town of Marazion, in Mount's-bay, beg humbly to approach your Majesty, and to express our grateful sense of the great honour conferred on us, not only by your Majesty's most gracious visit to our bay, accompanied by your Majesty's most illustrious Son, the Prince of Wales, and, we are proud to add, Duke of Cornwall, but also by your Majesty's landing at Saint Michael's-mount, within our chapelry.

We beg also most respectfully to express our conviction, that although Cornish loyalty in former times called forth the highest praise from your Majesty's predecessor, King Charles the First, whose laudatory letter still adorns our parish church, which loyalty remains unabated, yet in dutiful attachment to your Majesty we are not behind any of your Majesty's most faithful Cornish subjects.

May He, by whom alone Kings reign, bless your Majesty, and long continue to make your Majesty a blessing to the land.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Clergy, Justices, Aldermen, Councillors, and others, inhabitants of the borough of Penryn, or portion of the county long known by the name of faithful Cornwall, beg most humbly to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt congratulations, and to express our most grateful thanks that your Majesty, by again entering and continuing in the harbour of Falmouth, has given us another opportunity, hitherto seldom afforded by the Sovereigns of Great Britain, personally to declare our unfeigned attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and our firm determination to uphold and support to the utmost of our power our present most excellent and happy constitution.

We cannot conclude this our humble address, without earnestly praying that your Majesty may long be permitted to reign over us in peace and prosperity, and with your illustrious Consort and Royal Family enjoy all happiness and felicity.

Signed on behalf of the Mayor, Clergy, Justices, Aldermen, Councillors, and others, inhabitants of the said borough.

Alexr. Teague, Mayor.

To Her Majesty the QUEEN.

WE, your Majesty's faithful and devoted servants, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Penzance, in the county of Cornwall, hasten, most fervently and sincerely, to offer our earnest welcomes and congratulations on your Majesty's arrival in our bay, now, for the first time, honoured by the presence of Majesty.

We beg to assure your Majesty of our zeal and devoted affection, which, in common with all other your Majesty's subjects in these remote parts of your dominions, have been ever felt for your illustrious House; and we look with proud satisfaction to the term of faithful Cornish, bestowed on us for our loyalty by a former Sovereign of these realms.

May that peace and happiness, which have hitherto brightened and adorned your reign, be continued; and, if the testimonies of the joy felt by the inhabitants of this extreme western part of England on such a happy occasion have been less loud than those which have greeted your Majesty in other parts, our only excuse is, that such is the tranquillity of this part of your Majesty's dominions, and the security we feel under your Majesty's happy Government, that scarcely soldiers or ordnance are to be seen on all our coast.

Penzance, September, 1846.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Councillors, and Burgesses generally of the borough of Truro, most gratefully avail ourselves of the renewed opportunity of welcoming your Majesty to the shores and harbours of Cornwall.

We feel still more deeply sensible of the honour your Majesty confers on us by condescending to visit this our ancient town, the seat of the Stannary Courts, over which your Majesty's revered Consort presides as Lord Warden; and the capital of that ancient duchy, never before so highly honoured, from which your Majesty's beloved eldest son derives his title of Duke of Cornwall; and whilst we regret that buildings essential to the dignity of the duchy, and to the better accommodation of the Municipality of the borough, are at present in an unfinished state, we confidently rely on your Majesty's most gracious indulgence towards any defects arising out of this unavoidable circumstance.

That your Majesty may have a long and prosperous reign, and that Heaven may continue to shed its richest blessings upon your Majesty, your Majesty's most interesting domestic circle, and
