

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1846.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of September 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS a Treaty has been concluded between Her Majesty and His Majesty the King of Saxony, whereby due protection has been secured within the Saxon dominions for the authors of books, dramatic works, or musical compositions, and the inventors, designers, or engravers of prints and articles of sculpture, and the authors, inventors, designers, or engravers of any other works whatsoever of literature and the fine arts, in which the laws of Great Britain and of Saxony do now or may hereafter give their respective subjects the privilege of copyright, and for the lawful representatives or assigns of such authors, inventors, designers, or engravers, with regard to any such works first published within the dominions of Her Majesty:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to "international copyright," doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the day of the date hereof, the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of any of the following works (that is to say), books, prints, articles of sculpture, dramatic works, musical compositions, and any other works of literature and the fine arts, in which the laws of Great Britain give to British subjects the privilege of copyright, and the executors, administrators, and assigns of such authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers, respectively, shall, as respects works first published within the dominions of Saxony, after the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, have the privilege of copyright therein for a period equal to the term of copyright which authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of the like works, respectively, first published in the United Kingdom are by law entitled to; provided such books, dramatic pieces, musical compositions, prints, articles of sculpture, or other works of art, have been registered, and copies thereof have been delivered according to the requirements of the said recited Act, within twelve months after the first publication thereof, in any part of the Saxon dominions:

And it is hereby further ordered, that the authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions which shall, after the said first day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, have been or be first publicly represented or performed within the dominions of Saxony, shall have the sole liberty of representing or performing in any part of the British dominions such dramatic pieces or musical compositions, during a period equal to the period during which authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions first publicly represented or performed in the United Kingdom are entitled by law to the sole liberty of representing or performing the same; provided such dramatic pieces or musical compositions have been registered, and copies thereof have been delivered according to the requirements of the said recited Act, within twelve calendar months after the time of their being first represented or performed in any part of the Saxon dominions:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary orders herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of September 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, of the seventh and eighth years of Her present Majesty, for reducing, under certain circumstances, the duties payable upon books and engravings," it is enacted, that whenever Her Majesty has, by virtue of any authority vested in Her for that purpose, declared that the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, or makers of any books, prints, or other works of art, first published in any foreign country or countries, shall have the privilege of copyright therein, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit, from time to time, by any Order in Council, to declare that, from and after a day to be named in such Order, in lieu of the duties of Customs from time to time payable on the importation into the United Kingdom of books, prints, and drawings, there shall be payable only such duties of Customs as are mentioned in the said Act:

And whereas Her Majesty hath this day, by virtue of the authority vested in Her for that purpose, declared that the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of books, prints, and certain other works of art, first published within the dominions of Saxony, shall have the privilege of copyright therein:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in lieu of the duties of Customs now payable upon books, prints, and drawings, published at any place within the dominions of Saxony, there shall be payable only the duties of Customs following (that is to say):

On books originally produced in the United Kingdom, and republished at any place within the dominions of Saxony, a duty of two pounds ten shillings per hundred weight.

On books published or republished at any place within the dominions of Saxony, and not being books originally produced in the United Kingdom, a duty of fifteen shillings per hundred weight.

On prints and drawings, plain or coloured, published at any place within the dominions of Saxony, Lancaster and Preston Junction Railway Acts Amendment.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, enlarge, and render more effectual the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Lancaster and Preston Junction Railway, hereinafter mentioned, that is to say; an Act passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a railway from the town of Lancaster to the town of Preston, in the county palatine of Lancaster;" an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Lancaster and Preston Junction Railway Company to raise a further sum of money, and to amend the Act relating to such railway;" and an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of Her said present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Lancaster and Preston Junction Railway."

And notice is hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill to levy new tolls, rates, and duties upon, or in respect of, the said railway, and to alter the existing tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is also intended by the said Bill to provide for the election and appointment of Directors of, and a Clerk and Treasurer to, the said Lancaster and Preston Junction Railway Company, and to make other provisions in reference thereto.—Dated this twenty-second day of October 1846.

Robert Jackson, Solicitor.

Pile Pier Extensions.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of An Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for erecting and maintaining a pier in Pile Harbour, in the parish of Dalton, in Furness, in the county palatine of Lancaster," and for extending the powers and provisions of the said Act; and in which said Bill or Bills it is intended to apply for powers to extend and enlarge the said pier on the north and east sides of a certain island, called Roe Island, into the Harbour of Pile, all in the parish of Dalton in Furness aforesaid; and also to make and erect a pier, stage, or jetty on the south side of the said pier, between the pier head or crosspiece, in Pipestone, Bed Hallow, and Roe Island aforesaid, all in the said parish; and also to construct and maintain all necessary wharfs, quays, landing places, cranes, weighing machines, and other erections, buildings, works, and conveniences in the said parish, attached thereto or connected therewith respectively.

And notice is hereby given, that it is also intended to apply for powers to make lateral deviations from the line or lines of the said proposed extension, and enlargements of the said pier, to the extent, or within the limits defined upon the plans hereinafter mentioned.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans of the proposed variations, extensions, or enlargements, pier or piers, jetty or jetties, stage, and other works, and also duplicates of such plans, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, at his office, at Preston, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of November 1846; and a copy of the said plans and books of reference will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Dalton in Furness, at his place of abode, on or before the said thirtieth day of November.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended, in the said Bill or Bills, to apply for powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected with the lands and houses proposed to be taken; and also to levy tolls, rates, and duties upon, or in respect of, the said proposed variations, extensions, and enlargements, pier or piers, jetty or jetties, stage, and other works; and to alter existing tolls, rates and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates and duties, and other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that, in the said Bill or Bills, it is intended to apply for powers to sell or lease the said pier, and also the said proposed pier or piers, jetty or jetties, variations, extensions and enlargements, or any part thereof, and all or any of the rights, powers and privileges connected therewith.—Dated this twenty-sixth day of October 1846.

Rochdale Canal.—Sale to Manchester and Leeds Railway Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to enable the company of proprietors of the Rochdale Canal to sell, dispose of, and absolutely make over, or to demise or lease, to the Manchester and Leeds Railway Company, the said Canal, and the tolls thereof, together with all the houses, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, reservoirs, wharfs, warehouses, goods, property, effects, rights, powers, privileges, debts, liabilities, engagements, and undertakings of, or belonging to, the said company of proprietors, and to wind up the affairs thereof, and dissolve the said company of proprietors, and to enable the said Manchester and Leeds Railway Company to purchase, take, and hold the same, or any part or parts thereof, and to exercise all or any of the powers, rights, and privileges conferred upon the said company of proprietors, by the several Acts of Parliament, relating to the said Canal, or otherwise howsoever, but subject to the performance of all the obligations therein contained upon the said canal company, and to collect and receive rates, rents, tolls, and wharfages upon, or in respect of, the said canal, wharfs, warehouses, buildings, and works connected therewith, and to alter existing tolls and wharfages, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions therefrom, and to vest the said canal, and the lands, grounds, and works thereof, and other the real and personal estate, rights, powers, and privileges of the said company of proprietors, absolutely in the said Manchester and Leeds Railway Company, and to vary, or extinguish all or any existing rights and privileges in any manner connected therewith, or with the lands, grounds, messuages, warehouses, buildings, wharfs, and other works, and to confer other rights and privileges in relation thereto; and generally to enable the said companies respectively to carry out such agreements and arrangements, for carrying the several objects aforesaid into effect, as may be considered expedient or necessary; and, for the purposes aforesaid, it is intended to alter, amend, and enlarge or repeal the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament following, relating to the said canal viz.; an Act, passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a navigable canal from the Calder Navigation, at or near Sowerby Bridge Wharf, in the parish of Halifax, in the west riding of the county of York, to join the canal of His Grace the Duke of Bridgewater, in the parish of Manchester, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and also certain cuts from the said intended canal."

Another Act, passed in the fortieth year of the said reign, intituled "An Act for better enabling the company of proprietors of the Rochdale Canal to raise money for completing the said canal, and to vary the line of the said canal, and to alter, explain, and amend the Act passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for making the said canal."

Another Act, passed in the forty-fourth year of the said reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the company of proprietors of the Rochdale Canal more effectually to provide for the discharge of their debts, and to complete the whole of the works, to be executed by them, in pursuance of the several Acts passed for making and maintaining the said canal."

Also another Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of the said reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the company of proprietors of the Rochdale Canal more effectually to provide for the discharge of their debts, and to amend the several Acts passed for making and maintaining the said canal."

Another Act, passed in the forty-seventh year of the said reign, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, explain, and enlarge the powers of the several Acts passed for making and maintaining the Rochdale Canal Navigation;" and also to alter, vary, and amend the several Acts of Parliament, relating to the Manchester and Leeds Railway Company, viz., an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from Manchester, to Leeds;" also the Manchester and Leeds Railway Act, 1837; the Manchester and Leeds Railway Act, 1839; the Manchester and Leeds Railway Act, 1841; the Manchester and Leeds Railway Act, 1844; the Manchester and Leeds Railway Act, No 1, 1845; the Manchester and Leeds Railway Act, No. 2, 1845; the Manchester and Leeds Railway Act, 1846; also the Ashton, Stalybridge, and Liverpool Junction Railway Act, 1844; and the Ashton Stalybridge and Liverpool Junction Railway Act, 1845; also four several Acts, passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled respectively "An Act to incorporate the Huddersfield and Sheffield Junction Railway Company with the Manchester and Leeds Railway Company;" "An Act to incorporate the Liverpool and Bury Railway Company with the Manchester and Leeds Railway Company;" "An Act to incorporate the company of proprietors of the Manchester, Bolton, and Bury Canal Navigation and railway with the Manchester and Leeds Railway Company;" and "An Act for vesting in the Grand Junction Railway Company, and the Manchester and Leeds Railway Company, the North Union Railway; and all the works, property, and effects appertaining thereto."—Dated this twenty-second day of October 1846.
