

Suisse, not having since appeared in person, or by his own Solicitor, and not having filed his answer to the said amended bill, the above-named plaintiff doth hereby give notice, pursuant to the seventy-seventh and seventy-ninth of the said General Orders and Rules, that this Honourable Court will be moved before his Honour the Vice Chancellor of England, on Thursday the 12th day of November next, or so soon after as Counsel can be heard, by Mr. Schomberg, of Counsel for the above-named plaintiff, that the said plaintiff's said amended bill in this suit may be taken pro confesso against the said defendant, Nicolas Suisse.—Dated this 9th day of October 1846.

CAPRON, BRABANT, and CAPRONS, Solicitors for the above-named Plaintiff, Savile-place, New Burlington-street.

WHEREAS by an indenture, bearing date the 3d day of June 1846, made between Thomas Richmond Gale Braddyll, of Conishead Priory, in the county of Lancaster, Esq. of the first part; Edward Richmond Stanley Gale Braddyll, Esq. (his eldest son), of the second part; Clarence Braddyll, Esq. (second son of the said Thomas Richmond Gale Braddyll), of the third part; and Thomas Henry Sutton Sotheron, of Bowden-park, in the county of Wilts, Esq. M. P., Richard Greaves Townley, of Fulbourne, in the county of Cambridge, Esq., and the Reverend William Gale Townley, of Beaupré-hall, in the parish of Outwell, in the county of Norfolk, Clerk, of the fourth part; and the several other persons or firms, and the several persons constituting such firms, respectively, whose names and seals are thereunto subscribed and affixed, of the fifth part; all his the said Thomas Richmond Gale Braddyll's manors, messuages, farms, lands, tenements, and hereditaments whatsoever, situate in the several counties of Lancaster, Durham, Cumberland, and Westmoreland (except his shares in the South Hetton and Murton, and East Hetton and Killoe Collieries, in the county of Durham), were conveyed to and vested in the said Thomas Henry Sutton Sotheron, Richard Greaves Townley, and William Gale Townley, upon trust, for the benefit of the creditors of the said Thomas Richmond Gale Braddyll, other than and except such of them as were creditors simply in respect of or as connected with the shares and interests of the said Thomas Richmond Gale Braddyll in the collieries aforesaid; and whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made upon the hearing of a cause of Braddyll versus Sotheron, it is ordered, among other things, that it should be referred to the Master of the said Court in rotation, to inquire and state to the Court what creditors of the said Thomas Richmond Gale Braddyll, entitled to the benefit of the trusts of the said indenture, have executed the same, or shall, under the liberty thereby given for that purpose, come in and execute the same; and that such last-mentioned creditors should be at liberty to execute the said indenture; and that it should be referred to the said Master to take an account of what is due to the plaintiff and all other such creditors of the said Thomas Richmond Gale Braddyll; now, therefore, all persons claiming to be creditors of the said Thomas Richmond Gale Braddyll, entitled to the benefit of the trusts of the said indenture, and who have not executed the same, are hereby required to come in and execute such indenture, which is now in the custody of Messrs. Fladgate, Young, and Jacksons, of No. 12, Essex-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Solicitors, on or before the 22d day of December 1846; and all the said creditors, as well those who have as those who have not executed the said indenture, are, on or before this 22d day of December 1846, to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Duckworth, Esq. the Master to whom the said cause stands referred, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default hereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
