Kilmarnock and Ayr Direct Railway.

29, Saint Vincent-place, Glasgow,
December 10, 1846.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Directors or Committee of Management of the above Undertaking have resolved on proceeding with the Bill in the next session of Parliament, and, in terms of the Standing Orders, a new subscription contract requires to be executed and deposited in the Private Bill Office, on or before the 31st instant. This deed will accordingly lie at the Office of the Subscriber up till Tuesday the 29th instant, and the original Subscribers to this railway are requested to call and sign the same. In the event of any of the Subscribers to the Undertaking failing to sign the said deed, intimation is hereby given, that, in terms of the sixth clause of the Subscribers' agreement, 'the sums severally paid up or deposited by them, previously to such failure, shall, in the option of the Committee of Management, be absolutely forfeited to or for the use of the other Subscribers to or parties interested in the Undertaking, together with their several rights to the shares on which such deposits have been paid, and all their rights whatsoever at law and in equity in anywise relating to the premises.'

By order of the Directors,
Rob. Lamond.
