

And we further direct, that on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and taken progressive and additional rates of postage, according to the scale of weight and number of rates in the said Act contained as to letters, estimating and charging each additional rate at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we further direct, that such printed newspapers, printed publications, printed prices current, printed commercial lists, and printed courses of exchange, as are hereinafter mentioned, may be sent by the post according to the regulations and rates hereinafter set forth, that is to say,

British newspapers, and such British publications as are allowed to pass by the post as newspapers in the United Kingdom, sent from the United Kingdom to Prussia or to foreign countries, the correspondence of which is, or shall be, transmitted through Prussia, one halfpenny each.

Newspapers, and publications allowed to pass by the post in Prussia as newspapers, sent from Prussia or foreign countries, the correspondence of which is, or shall be, transmitted through Prussia to the United Kingdom, one halfpenny each.

Prussian newspapers sent from Prussia to any foreign country, or any British colony through the United Kingdom, and foreign newspapers sent from any foreign country to Prussia, through the United Kingdom, one halfpenny each.

Colonial newspapers between the British colonies and Prussia, through the United Kingdom, one halfpenny each.

Such printed prices current, commercial lists, and courses of exchange, as are allowed to circulate by the post, unstamped, in the United Kingdom, sent from the United Kingdom to Prussia, one penny each.

Printed foreign prices current, commercial lists, and courses of exchange, sent from Prussia to the United Kingdom, one penny each.

And we direct, that all such printed newspapers, printed publications, printed prices current, printed commercial lists, and printed courses of exchange, as shall be transmitted under the provisions of this warrant, shall in all cases be sent to or from the United Kingdom, as the case may be, via Hamburg, the Netherlands, or Belgium, and the rates hereinbefore made payable in respect of the same shall be payable, whether the sea conveyance of them shall be by packet boat or private ship.

And we further direct, that printed pamphlets and periodical publications (not being strictly newspapers, and not bearing British newspaper stamps), printed and posted within the United Kingdom, addressed to Prussia, and printed pamphlets and periodical publications (not being entitled to pass as newspapers), printed and posted in Prussia, addressed to any place in the United Kingdom, may be sent by the post via Hamburg, the Netherlands, or Belgium, by packet boat or private ship, according to the regulations and rates hereinafter mentioned, that is to say,

For every such pamphlet or publication, Not exceeding two ounces in weight, a rate of 1d. each.

Exceeding two ounces and not exceeding three ounces, 6d. each.

Exceeding three ounces and not exceeding four ounces, 8d. each.

And for every additional ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces, there shall be charged and paid an additional rate of two pence, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce.

And we further direct, that no such printed pamphlet or publication, exceeding the weight of sixteen ounces, shall be forwarded by the post.

And we further direct, that the Postmaster General may cause the postage on any such printed newspapers, prices current, commercial lists, printed courses of exchange, pamphlets, and publications as are hereinbefore made liable to any rate of postage (if posted in the United Kingdom or the colonies) to be paid on the same being put into the post-office.

And we further direct, that every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

And we further direct, that in all cases in which any letter or printed newspaper, printed price current, commercial list, course of exchange, pamphlet, or publication, which shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this warrant, shall pass through a foreign country, any foreign postage payable thereon shall be charged and paid thereon in addition to the British postage.

And we further direct, that no printed newspaper, printed price current, commercial list, course of exchange, pamphlet, or publication, shall be conveyed by the post, under the regulations of this present warrant, unless the same shall be sent without a cover, or in a cover open at the sides, or in an open band, nor unless there be no word or communication printed on the paper after its publication, or upon the cover or band thereof, and no writing or manual mark upon it, or upon the cover or band of it, except the name and address of the person to whom sent, nor any paper or thing enclosed in or with the same; and every such newspaper, price current, commercial list, course of exchange, pamphlet, and publication shall be forwarded under and subject to such other conditions, regulations, restrictions, and penalties as by the said recited Act are directed, in respect of newspapers and printed papers sent by the post; and any such printed price current, commercial list, and course of exchange, not bearing a newspaper stamp, shall contain only the names and prices of the articles, without mentioning the name or residence of the vendor or sender, otherwise such price current, commercial list, and course of exchange shall be chargeable with the full letter rates of postage.
