

Act for such adjoining county in and for such district as Her Majesty shall order, in like manner as if it were part of such adjoining county :

And whereas by the said Act it is also enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that any court, holden for the recovery of small debts or demands within the provisions of any Act cited in either of the schedules annexed to the said Act, and marked (A) and (B) respectively, shall be holden as a county court, and to assign a district to every such court either greater or less than the district in which the court, holden under the provisions of any such Act, has jurisdiction, and to alter the place of holding any such court, or to order that any such court be abolished :

And whereas by the said Act it is also enacted, that any Order in Council, made for the purposes of the said Act, shall be published in the London Gazette, and notice of the intention of Her Majesty to take into consideration the propriety of making any such Order shall be published in the London Gazette one calendar month at least before any such Order shall be made ; and whereas Her Majesty has been pleased this day to refer the consideration of the said Act, and of the Orders which it may be proper to make for the purposes thereof, to a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and to direct that the said Committee do report their opinion thereupon to Her Majesty :

Notice is hereby given, that, after the expiration of one calendar month from the date of the publication of this notice in the London Gazette, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, will take into consideration the propriety of making Orders for the purposes of the said Act, and for putting the said Act in execution in every county throughout England and Wales.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th day of December 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to

"amend the law respecting the office of county coroner," it is enacted, that when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it should be lawful for the said justices, in general or quarter sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division or alteration be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof be given to the coroner or coroners of such county as thereafter provided ; and it is thereby further enacted, that the clerk of the peace should give notice of any such resolution to every coroner for such county, and of the time when the petition would be taken by the said justices into consideration, and the justices should confer with every such coroner who should attend the meeting of the justices for that purpose touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of the inhabitants, the nature of their employments, and such other circumstances as should appear to the justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of that Act, and such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts, and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, should be certified to Her Majesty, under the hands and seals of two or more justices present when such petition should be agreed to, and the clerk of the peace for such county should forthwith give or send a true copy of such petition, certified under his hand, to every coroner for such county ; and it is further enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, if she should think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition which might be presented to Her by any coroner of the same county concerning such proposed division or alteration, or whenever it should seem fit to Her Majesty to direct the issue of a writ de coronatore eligendo, for the purpose of authorizing the election of an additional coroner above the number of those who had been theretofore customarily elected to such county, to order that such county should be divided into such and so many districts, for the
