

point, and ordain, that the districts to be comprised within such municipal corporations respectively, shall be of such extent, and shall have such boundaries as are prescribed and provided for in and by the said instructions, and that the choice and election of the various officers of the said corporations respectively, and of the members of the governing bodies thereof, shall take place and be regulated according to the rules, and in the manner and form prescribed and provided for in and by the said instructions, and that the qualifications of the members of the said municipal corporations shall in like manner be ascertained according to the rules and in the manner and form prescribed and provided for in and by the said instructions.

III. And whereas it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful for us, in and by any letters patent to be issued as aforesaid, from time to time to divide the said Islands of New Zealand into two or more separate provinces and to constitute and establish within the same two or more separate assemblies, that is to say, one such assembly in and for each of such separate provinces, and that each of the said assemblies shall consist of and be holden by a Governor, a Legislative Council, and a House of Representatives. Now, therefore, in further pursuance of the said recited Act, and in exercise of the powers thereby in us vested, we do hereby grant, ordain, and appoint, that the said Islands of New Zealand shall be divided into two separate provinces, to be called respectively the "Province of New Ulster" and the "Province of New Munster;" and we do hereby divide the said islands accordingly; and we do hereby constitute and establish a separate assembly within each of the said two provinces, to consist of and be holden by a Governor, Legislative Council, and a House of Representatives; and we do hereby declare, ordain, and appoint, that the limits of the said provinces respectively, and the time at which in each of the said provinces respectively the said assemblies shall be convened or holden, shall be determined in the manner and form prescribed and provided for in and by the said instructions hereinbefore mentioned.

IV. And whereas it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that each of the said Legislative Councils, when constituted, shall consist of such persons as we shall for that purpose appoint; and that the elections of the members of the said Houses of Representatives shall take place in such manner and form, and under such regulations, as shall for that purpose be prescribed in any such letters patent as aforesaid. Now, therefore, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers aforesaid, we do hereby grant, appoint, and ordain, that the said Legislative Councils shall consist of such persons as are for that purpose appointed or designated by us in the said instructions hereinbefore mentioned, and that the elections of members of the said Houses of Representatives respectively shall take place in the manner and form, and under the regulations prescribed and provided for in and by the said instructions hereinbefore mentioned.

V. And whereas it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful for us, in and by any such letters patent to be issued as aforesaid, to constitute and establish a General Assembly in and for the said Islands of New Zealand, to be called the General Assembly of New Zealand, which said General Assembly shall consist of, and be holden by, the Governor-in-chief of the said islands, and a Legislative Council, and a House of Representatives; and that such Legislative Council shall consist of such persons as we shall for that purpose appoint; and that such House of Representatives shall consist of members of the respective Houses of Representatives of the several provinces into which the said islands may be divided, which members so to serve in the said General Assembly shall be elected, nominated, and appointed by such persons, in such manner and form, and upon and subject to such rules and conditions as we by any such letters patent as aforesaid shall direct. Now, therefore, in further pursuance of the said recited Act, and in exercise of the powers thereby in us vested, we do hereby constitute and establish a General Assembly in and for the Islands of New Zealand, to be called the General Assembly of New Zealand, and to consist of, and be holden by, the Governor-in-chief of the said islands, a Legislative Council, and a House of Representatives; and we do hereby grant, appoint, and ordain, that the Legislative Council of the said General Assembly of New Zealand shall consist of such persons as are for that purpose appointed or designated by us in the said instructions hereinbefore mentioned; and that the House of Representatives of the said General Assembly shall consist of members of the respective Houses of Representatives of the said provinces, to be for that purpose elected, nominated, and appointed by the persons appointed or designated, and in the manner and form prescribed and provided for in and by the said instructions hereinbefore mentioned.

VI. And whereas it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful for us, by any such letters patent to be issued as first aforesaid, to make and prescribe all such rules as to us shall seem fit, for ascertaining the qualifications of the members of any such Assemblies or General Assembly as aforesaid, and for determining the length of time for which every such Assembly or General Assembly shall be holden from the time of the election of the members of the said Houses of Representatives, and how and by what authority the same shall be dissolved or prorogued, and for prescribing the oaths to be taken or the affirmation to be made by the members of the said Corporations, Assemblies, or General Assembly, or any of them, before entering on the discharge of the duties of their respective offices, and for prescribing the course of proceeding to be followed in the said respective Assemblies and in the said General Assembly, in regard to the enactment of laws, statutes, and ordinances therein, and for determining in what cases the Governor-in-chief for the time being of the said Islands of New Zealand, or the Governor for the time being of any separate
