

parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, at any time to assign the right of patronage of any such district or new parish as aforesaid, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion and in such manner as shall be approved by the like authority:

“ And whereas a sufficient sum of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities to produce the annual sum of fifty pounds has been contributed, and transferred to our account and into our names in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by the Right Honourable George Henry Earl of Falmouth, towards the permanent endowment of the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish of Baldhu, so herein recommended to be constituted; and it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that, in consideration of such contribution, the first nomination of a minister to the said district be assigned to the said George Henry Earl of Falmouth:

“ We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of the said district of Baldhu, and the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, for the first such nomination, be assigned to and vested in the said George Henry Earl of Falmouth.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ The district of BALDHU, being—

“ All those parts of the parishes of Kenwyn and Kea, and the district of Chacewater, in the county of Cornwall, and in the diocese of Exeter, comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) in the middle of the turnpike road from Chacewater to Truro, and opposite to the middle of the high road from Polstraies to Twelve Heads, and thence extending eastward along the middle of such first-mentioned road to a point (marked b as aforesaid) near a certain place called Glowyth, and opposite to the middle of the high road to Hugos, and thence first southward along the middle of such last-mentioned road as far as Hugos aforesaid, and thence continuing southward along the middle of another road leading by Lambourn to the middle of the road from Godron Barrow to Pound-lane, and thence towards the south east in a straight direction, four hundred and forty yards or thereabouts, to the head of the watercourse called Helston Water, and thence along the middle of such watercourse as far as the middle of the road leading to Carnon-bridge, and thence towards the south west along the middle of such last-mentioned road to the foot of the said bridge on the Kea side, and thence towards the north west along the southern
