

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership heretofore subsisting between us the undersigned, George Parrott and Edward John Cornock, of Chipping Sodbury, in the county of Gloucester, Tanners, was this day dissolved by mutual consent: As witness our hands this 15th day of January 1847.

*George Parrott.
Edward John Cornock.*

Reverend PHILEMON POWNOLL BASTARD, deceased.

ALL persons having any claims on the estate of the late Reverend Philemon Pownoll Bastard, formerly of Hanworth, and late of Ryde, Isle of Wight, are requested to send a statement of the particulars thereof to Mr. Cowburn, 15, Lincoln's-inn-fields.

N. B. Such persons as have already furnished the particulars of their claims need only state the amount.

ELIZABETH HALE.

TEN pounds reward will be given to any person who will supply information which may lead to the discovery of whether Elizabeth Hale (wife of the late William Hale) is still living, or as to the time of her death if she is dead. The said William and Elizabeth Hale lived together in and previous to the year 1801, in a house (long since pulled down) which was situate in a field near the White Horse Public-house, High-street, Poplar, which Public-house, as well as the Black Horse, Poplar, the said William Hale, who was then a seaman in the West India Merchant Service, at that time frequented; about the said year the said William Hale and Elizabeth his wife ceased to live together. From about the year 1803 to the year 1829, the said William Hale resided at No. 16, Earnest-street, Stepney, and was employed as a rigger and foreman or lockkeeper on the City Canal; he afterwards resided in Oxford-street, Chelsea; subsequently at Hounslow, and then at Silver Hall-cottages, Isleworth, where he lately died. The above reward will be paid on application to Messrs. Addis and Guy, Solicitors, 10, Great Queen-street, Westminster.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an indenture of lease, bearing date the 15th day of January 1847, the cotton mills or factories, buildings, and premises, situate in Portwood, within Brinnington, in the county of Chester, together with the steam engines, boilers, mill gearing, shafting, and apparatus, all which are particularly specified and enumerated in a schedule or inventory at the foot of the said lease, were let by John Scott, of Stockport, in the said county of Chester, Ironfounder, to John Robinson, of Portwood aforesaid, Cotton Spinner, upon certain terms and conditions therein contained; and further notice is hereby given, that the said steam engines, boilers, mill gearing, shafting, and apparatus are the sole property of the said John Scott, and that the said John Robinson hath no interest therein further than the use of the same as the tenant thereof.—Dated at Stockport aforesaid this 15th day of January 1847

JOHN SCOTT.
JOHN ROBINSON.
