

be assigned to the consecrated church, called Trinity Church, situate at Middleton, in the said parish of Wirksworth, under or by virtue of the power or authority for that purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," and that such district should consist of the north westernmost part of the said parish, and should be named, "The Chapelry District of Middleton," and be bounded on the north, north east, and north by the parish of Bonsall and the parochial chapelry of Winster, in the parish of Youlgreave; on the west by the parish of Brassington; on the south west and south by the Cromford and High Peak Railway, as far as the road leading from Wirksworth to Cromford; and on the east by part of the parish of Wirksworth, from which the said chapelry district of Middleton is separated by proceeding westerly from the point where the before-mentioned railway crosses the road from Cromford to Wirksworth, at the junction of the cross road leading from the said road to Middleton, along which road it proceeds as far as a footpath leading from Wirksworth to Bonsall, up which footpath it proceeds northerly till it reaches the road leading from Cromford to Bonsall, then northwesterly along the middle of that road as far as the parish of Bonsall, as such district is more particularly delineated on the map or plan thereof hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink :

"That banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said church, called Trinity Church, at Middleton aforesaid; and that all the fees to arise therefrom should be reserved for, on account of, and paid to the present Vicar of the said parish of Wirksworth during his incumbency of such parish, but that, upon his avoidance thereof, the said fees should belong to the Minister for the time being of the said church, at Middleton aforesaid :

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Lichfield has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section herein-before mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said John Lord Bishop of Lichfield has signed and sealed this present representation :

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 18th day of January 1847,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the provisions of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the church building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, viz. .

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration
