

"And whereas, in pursuance of a further provision of the said Act, we did, at the expiration of the first seven years, reckoning from the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, obtain a new return of the revenues of the said see; and it appears upon such return, that in order to preserve as nearly as may be to the future Bishops thereof the amount of income aforesaid, the following fixed annual payment should be made to us out of such revenues:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that from and after the next avoidance of the said see of Salisbury, the Bishop succeeding thereto, and his successors, shall pay, or cause to be paid to our credit, into the Bank of England, to an account intituled, "Account with the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," by equal half-yearly payments, the fixed annual sum of one thousand eight hundred and fifty pounds; the first payment to be made at the end of six calendar months from the day of such avoidance, whether the same shall happen by death, translation or otherwise; and that whenever a vacancy of the said see shall thereafter happen on any other day than the half-yearly day of payment so calculated as aforesaid, then the next half-yearly payment shall be duly apportioned and paid between and by the Bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the Bishop succeeding to the said see.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the matter aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.
