

Uttoxeter-road, at the point where that road crosses the said brook, and from that point by a line drawn in a north easterly direction from the said Old Uttoxeter-road to the southern end of Larges-street, and from that street continued on to the southern end of Short-street, up the middle of Short-street; and on the east and north east the boundary is formed by proceeding in a north easterly direction to Agard-street, which street it crosses and continues north easterly in a straight line (westward of the Baptist Chapel) until it reaches the boundary line which divides the parishes of Saint Werburgh and All Saints; it then proceeds north westerly, north easterly, and again north westerly, along the said boundary line of the said two last-mentioned parishes, as far as Brook-street, along the middle of which street it proceeds north westerly to the detached portion of the parish of All Saints; it then proceeds north easterly, north westerly, and south westerly, along the boundary which separates such detached portion of All Saints' parish from the parish of Saint Alkmund, until it enters Upper Brook-street, up the middle of which street it then proceeds north westerly to the end thereof; and from thence proceeds in a north easterly and north westerly direction, along the enclosure of the field called or known as 'the Nuns,' till it meets the boundary of the parishes of Saint Werburgh and Saint Alkmund, along which boundary it then proceeds westerly and northerly as far as the said liberty of Darley Abbey on the north, where the boundary commenced, as such proposed consolidated chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink, green, and yellow :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg further to represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the patrons of the parish churches of the said three parishes of Saint Werburgh, All Saints, and Saint Alkmund, with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, and also with the consent of the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Lichfield, within whose diocese the said three parishes are situate, that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church and consolidated chapelry of Saint John, Derby, should belong to, and, when occasion may require, be exercised by the Vicar for the time being of the said parish of Saint Werburgh, Derby :

"That the consents of the said John Lord Bishop of Lichfield, as bishop of the diocese, and of the Right Honourable Charles Christopher Baron Cottenham, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and as such patron on behalf of your Majesty of the vicarage or parish church of Saint Werburgh aforesaid, the value of which vicarage is entered in your Majesty's book as being under twenty pounds per annum, and also the consents of the Reverend William Marsh, of Leamington, in the county of Warwick, Doctor in Divinity, the Reverend William Carus Wilson, of Casterton-hall, in the county of Westmoreland, Clerk, the Reverend William Carus, of Trinity College, Cambridge, Clerk, the Reverend John Venn, of the city of Hereford, Clerk, and the Venerable George Hodson, Archdeacon of Stafford, as the several patrons, in trust, of the parish church of All Saints, Derby aforesaid, and of Jedediah Strutt, of Belper, in the said county of Derby, Esq. as patron of the vicarage or parish church of Saint Alkmund, Derby aforesaid, have been severally obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said John Lord Bishop of Lichfield, Charles Christopher Baron Cottenham, William Marsh, William Carus Wilson, William Carus, John Venn, George Hodson, and Jedediah Strutt have severally signed and sealed this representation :

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation into one consolidated chapelry be accordingly made, and the agreement, in respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church and consolidated chapelry, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.
