Haughton Hall Estate and Burnt Ground Pen.

PEREMPTORILY to be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Hawthorn versus James, with the approbation of Samuel Duckworth, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-room of the said Court, at Gray's-inn Coffee-house, Holborn, London, on Wednesday the 9th day of June 1847, at the hour of one o'clock precisely, in two lots;

All that sugar plantation and estate, called Haughton Hall, situate at Green Island, in the parish of Hanover, in the county of Cornwall, in the said island of Jamaica, containing about 620 acres, more or less, with the wharf, messuages, houses, works, and buildings thereon, and the live stock, plantation, implements, and other effects belonging thereto;

And also all that penn, called Burnt Ground Penn, situate in the parish of Hanover aforesaid, containing, with the lands belonging thereto, 1750 acres, more or less, with the live and dead stock, messuages, and buildings thereon.

Particulars and conditions of sale are in a course of preparation, and may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Messrs. Lake and Walker, Solicitors, No. 8, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, London; of Messrs. Le Blanc and Cook, Solicitors, New Bridge-street, Blackfriars, London; and of Messrs. Hawthorn and Sheddin, No. 5, Lime-street-square, Leadenhall-street, London.

Heston and Lampton, near Hounslow, Middlesex.

Valuable Freehold and Copyhold Estates.—Tithe Free.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes of Trivitt versus Benson, Trivitt versus Benson, and Trivitt versus Rose, with the approbation of Sir Giffin Wilson, Knt. one of the Masters of the Court, at the George Inn, Hounslow, on Wednesday the 31st day of March 1847, between the hours of two and three in the afternoon, in five lots;

A detached dwelling-house, adjoining the road from Heston to Lampton. The residence comprises, on the upper floor, two bed-chambers and closet; on the first floor, five principal bed-chambers, water closet, dressing-room, and ante-room; ground floor, large dining-room and drawing-room, with bow windows and handsome marble chimney pieces, also breakfast-room, together with kitchen, scullery, pantry, wine cellar, dairy, and wash-house; entrance-hall approached by flight of stone steps and portico; lawn in front of house; two orchards, pleasure and kitchen gardens, partly walled, conservatory, carriage-yard, with folding gates, coach-house, and room over; four-stall stable and harness-room, loft over in excellent condition, also another stable, two stalls, loft over, tool-house, piggery, cow-house, hen-house, and cart-shed. The two orchards, gardens, and lawn, with the house, contain together about 2½ acres of land, all of copyhold tenure, held of the manor of Heston. These premises were formerly the residence of Robert How, Esq. and lately occupied by his widow, Mrs. Esther How, now deceased. The land tax on the above premises is redeemed. The fines are 2s. 6d. on alienation, and 6d. for a heriot on death of tenant.

Also two freehold pieces of arable land, containing together 6A. 3R. 15P., adjoining the premises above mentioned; and also a small piece of freehold land, formerly part of the waste, containing 2 roods, 18 perches, adjoining the same premises, and situate in front of the dwelling-house. These premises were late in the occupation of Thomas Mitton, Esq.

Also two detached cottages, held of the manor of Heston, abutting on one of the orchards above mentioned, and adjoining the said road from Hounslow to Lampton, with small gardens attached, and respectively occupied by Mr. Payne and Mr. Buckle, as tenants from year to year, at an annual rent of £12 each. These cottages are in good condition, and the tenants very respectable.

Also a freehold orchard, situate in the parish of Heston, containing 1A. 2R., now in the occupation of James Gilbert the younger, under a lease for fourteen years from Michaelmas 1838, at a yearly rent of £10 10s. granted by the trustees of the will of the said Robert How. The land tax on these premises is redeemed.
