North Staffordshire Railway (Alterations and Branches).—Hanley Branch Deviation.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Bill is now pending in Parliament, intituled "A Bill to consolidate and amend the Acts relating to the North Staffordshire Railway Company, and to authorise certain alterations of, and the formation of, certain branches and additional works in connection with their Undertaking."

That, since the introduction of the said Bill into Parliament, an alteration therein has become desirable, and will be applied for, to authorise the Staffordshire Railway Company to construct, in lieu of the sixth, or Hanley Branch, as shewn on the plan of the intended alterations and branches deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Stafford, an extension of the fifth or branch to Earl Granville's Iron Works, such extension to be situate in the parishes of Stoke-upon-Trent and Burslem, or one of them, in the county of Stafford, and to commence in or near a certain field (No. 9), in such parish on the last-mentioned plans, and to terminate at or near the New Hall Tollgate, in the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, in the said county of Stafford:

And notice is hereby further given, that a plan and section, describing the line and levels of the said extension or altered railway, and the lands in or through which it is intended to be made, together with a book of reference to such plan, has been deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Stafford, at his office, at Stafford; and that a copy of so much of the said plan, section, and book of reference, as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said intended extension and works are to be made, have been deposited with the parish clerk of those parishes respectively, at their respective residences.—Dated this 26th day of April 1847.
