

Whitehall, May 17, 1847.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Sir Culling Eardley Smith, of Bedwell-park, in the county of Hertford, Bart. Her royal licence and authority, that, in compliance with a proviso contained in a certain indenture of settlement, bearing date the 15th day of June 1824, he may take upon himself and use the surname of Eardley only, and quarter the arms of Eardley with his own family arms; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Exchequer Bill-Office, No. 2, Whitehall-Yard, May 18, 1847.

THE Exchequer Bills, dated in the month of June 1846, viz.

Per 9 Victoria, cap. 15, £18,380,200, anno 1846, with the interest due thereon, will be paid off on the 15th day of June 1847, when the interest will cease. Such bills will be received daily, from half past ten o'clock till two, until and including the 4th day of June, at this Office, where lists are to be obtained, containing instructions for arranging the bills. The bearers must endorse each bill with their usual signatures, and write their names and residences at the bottom of each list; and where the names of holders are inserted in bills, the bearers, not being such holders, must previously obtain their endorsements. The bearers must attend to give receipts for the payment.

Payment may be obtained, if required, previous to the said 15th day of June, upon leaving the bills for examination one day prior to that on which such payment is desired.

New bills, bearing an interest of three pence by the day upon every one hundred pounds, and dated the said 15th day of June, may be obtained in whole or in part payment of principal of the Exchequer Bills issued under the above-mentioned Act, upon stating the required amount on the lists, delivered on or before the said 4th day of June, which new bills, with the interest on the bills exchanged, will be issued on the 16th day of June.

The bills to be classed in separate lists, according to the Acts under which they have been issued.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills charged on Supplies, dated prior to June 1846, have been advertised to be paid off.

Notice.—The Exchequer Bills issued p. 9 Vict. cap. 15, and dated 16th March 1847, will bear interest at the rate of three pence per centum per diem, on and after 15th June 1847.
