The London Gazette

Of TUESDAY the 1st of JUNE.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 1847.

GENERAL ORDER.

HER Majesty having been graciously pleased to command, that a medal should be struck to record the services of Her Fleets and Armies during the wars commencing in 1793 and ending in 1814, and that one should be conferred upon every Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, and Soldier of the Army, who was present in any battle or siege, to commemorate which medals had been struck by command of Her Majesty's Royal Predecessors, and had been distributed to the General or Superior Officers of the several Armies and Corps of Troops engaged, in conformity with the Regulations of the Service at that time in force; General and other Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers, who consider that they have claims to receive this mark of their Sovereign's gracious recollection of their services, and of Her desire to record the same, are each to apply to the Secretary of the Board of General Officers, Whitehall, London, and to send, in writing, to the same Officer a statement of his claim, for what action, at what period of time, and the names of the persons, or the titles of the documents by which the claim can be proved.

These claims are to be sent, by General Officers having such claims, through the hands of the Commander in Chief of the Army.

The Staff Officers having such claims, through the General Officers under whom they served, if alive; if not alive, through the Adjutant General of the Army.

Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers of Regiments, Battalions, and Detachments, through the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Detachment at the time, if still alive. This will be known by enquiry at the Agents of the Regiment resident in London. If such Commanding Officer should not be alive, the application, in writing, must be sent through the Adjutant General of the Army.
