Edwd. Bennett.

Whitehall, May 8, 1847.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Henry Ashton, of Stockport, in the county palatine of Chester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

We, the undersigned, being three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby, under the authority of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs," appoint the following places within the port of Hull to be legal quays for the lading and unlading of goods, and do hereby declare the bounds and extents of such quays to be as follows; that is to say, all that open place, called the South and West Quay of the Humber Dock, that is to say, from the Lock Pit of the said Humber Dock Basin, westward and northward, to the entrance of the Railway Dock, northward and eastward to the Lock Pit from the Humber Dock to the Junction Dock; also of the whole of the South Western Quay of the Junction Dock, in the rear of a large warehouse, recently erected by the Dock Company, at Kingston-upon-Hull, all of which quays are forty feet in width or thereabouts; also the whole of the quays around the Railway Dock, to the extent of fifty feet on the north and south sides thereof, and about forty feet at the west end of the said dock, all of which are situated within the port and town of Kingston-upon-Hull.

At the Treasury-chambers, Whitehall, the 28th day of May 1847,

Ebrington.
