

" SCHEDULE.

" The district of VAUXHALL, being—

" All that part of the parish of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, bounded as follows, that is to say, on the north by an imaginary line extending along the middle of that part of Burlington-street situate between the Leeds and Liverpool Canal and the Vauxhall-road; on the east by an imaginary line extending along the middle of such road; on the south east by an imaginary line extending along the middle of Tithebarn-street; and on the west by an imaginary line extending northward from the middle of Tithebarn-street aforesaid, along the middle of Key-street, to a point (marked a on the map or plan, hereunto annexed) opposite to the middle of Edmund-street, and thence westward along the middle of such last-mentioned street, as far as the line of railway, or intended line of railway, between Liverpool and Bury, and thence northward along the middle of such line of railway, as far as the Leeds and Liverpool Canal aforesaid, and thence towards the north east along the middle of such canal, as far as Burlington-street aforesaid."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patron of the church of the parish, and to the incumbents and patrons of the churches or chapels of the districts, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and whereas such incumbents and patrons have respectively consented to the said scheme :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

A 2

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 17th day of June 1847,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act " to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed " in the last session of Parliament, for building, " and promoting the building, of additional " churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, in the words following, viz.

" Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the parish of Eastbourne, in the county of Sussex, and within the diocese of Chichester, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned, under the powers or provisions for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act to amend " and render more effectual an Act, passed " in the last session of Parliament, for building, " and promoting the building, of additional " churches in populous parishes," to the consecrated church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, situate in the said parish of Eastbourne, and that such district should be named, " The Chapelry District of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne," and that the boundaries thereof should be as follow, that is to say :

" The district is bounded on the north by the parish of Willingdon; on the east and south by the sea; and on the west and north west by the remaining part of the parish of Eastbourne, from which it is separated as follows, namely, proceeding from the sea in a north westerly direction, up the middle of Leet-way, until it enters the high road, along the middle of which high road the boundary then proceeds north easterly as far
