

the said indenture is now at the office of the said Joseph Musket Yetts, at No. 5, Field-court, Gray's-inn aforesaid, for the inspection and execution of the creditors of the said George Haines and William Vorley.

Mr. HENRY BULMER's Assignment.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Henry Bulmer, of New Malton, in the county of York, Grocer and Tea Dealer, hath by indenture, bearing date the 22d day of July instant, conveyed and assigned all his stock in trade, personal estate and effects unto Thomas Binks, of No. 14, Cook-street, in the town of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Wholesale Tea Dealer, and Thomas Reed, of New Malton aforesaid, Bank Cashier, for the equal benefit of the said Thomas Binks and his copartner in trade, and such other of the creditors of the said Henry Bulmer who shall execute the said indenture within two calendar months from the date thereof; and that the said indenture was duly executed by the said Henry Bulmer and Thomas Reed, respectively, on the said 22d day of July instant, in the presence of, and attested by, William Simpson, of New Malton aforesaid, Attorney at Law; and that the same indenture was duly executed by the said Thomas Binks on the 29th day of July instant, in the presence of, and attested by, William Chartres, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Attorney at Law; and notice is hereby also given, that the said indenture now lies at our office, in New Malton aforesaid, for execution by such of the creditors of the said Henry Bulmer as shall avail themselves of the benefit and advantage thereof within the time above limited.

By order,

A. and W. SIMPSON, Solicitors to the Trustees.
Malton, 30th July 1847.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the Court of Review, and under the authority of Edward Goulburn, Esq. the Commissioner of the Court of Bankruptcy acting in prosecution of a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued and now in prosecution against John Reay and John Robert Reay, of Mark-lane, in the city of London, Wine Merchants, Dealers and Chapman, at the Bash Inn, Carlisle, by Mr. Wilfred Kirkup, on Saturday the 21st day of August next, at two o'clock in the afternoon of the same day;

All that valuable tithe-free estate, situate at the entrance of the village of Langrigg, in the parish of Bromfield, in the county of Cumberland, consisting of a messuage or dwelling-house, cottage, houses, orchard, barn, byers, stables, and other out-buildings, and eighty-seven acres, two roods, and two perches of arable, meadow, and pasture land (the minerals thereunder excepted). The farm is at present occupied by Mr. Daniel Jefferson, under a lease for eleven years, commencing on 2d February 1844, at the yearly rent of £156. The property is all freehold excepting about one rood, which is of customary tenure, and held under General Wyndham, by payment of the yearly customary rent of seven pence.

Langrigg is situate six miles from Wigton, three from Aspatria, and five from Allouby; coal and lime are within a short distance, and the Maryport and Carlisle Railway passes about a mile and a half from the village.

Mr. Daniel Jefferson, the tenant, will shew the estate, and farther particulars may be known by application to Messrs. Tilson, Squance, Clarke, and Morice, Solicitors, Coleman-street, London; Messrs. Capes and Stuart, Solicitors, Gray's-inn, London; Messrs. Hodgson, Solicitors, Courts, Carlisle; and of the Auctioneer, Mr. Wilfred Kirkup, of Carlisle.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Davis, of Preston, in the county of Lancaster, Timber Merchant, and also carrying on the trade or business of a Lime Burner at Ratcliffe-wharf, within Forton, in the said county, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 25th day of August instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Bankruptcy Court, in George-street, in Manchester, in the said county, in order to assent to or dissent from the assignees selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, and at such price or prices, and either for ready money or upon credit, or upon such other terms and with or without or upon such security as they may think proper, all or any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, whether real or personal; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees having already employed, and continuing to employ, an accountant and other person or persons to investigate the accounts, and to wind up and settle the affairs of the said bankrupt, and to make such statement touching the same, and in such manner as the said assignees may deem requisite, and to pay the reasonable expences attending such employment and services; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, and defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, which they may deem proper and necessary for recovering and protecting the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or for any other purpose relating to the prosecuting of the said Fiat, or to their compounding, settling, and submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing upon any matter relating thereto; and generally to authorize the said assignees to take and adopt such other proceedings, relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, as the assignees may deem expedient.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Skipworth, of Belton, in the county of Lincoln, Clerk, Miller, Brickmaker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said Thomas Skipworth, on Friday the 27th day of August next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Woolpack Inn, in Dorchester, in the county of York, in order to assent to, confirm, and allow, or otherwise dissent from, all or any acts, matters, and things done and performed by the said assignees since their appointment; and also to assent to or dissent from the proceedings taken by the assignees to obtain a sequestration of the rectory and parish church of Pickworth, in the county and diocese of Lincoln, of which the said bankrupt is the rector; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, and at such price or prices, and either for ready money or upon credit, or upon such other terms and with or without and upon such security as they may think proper, the said sequestration and their estate and interest in the said rectory, and also all or any part of the real and personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor to the said bankrupt's estate, and to their allowing time for payment as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing or preferring and prosecuting any action or actions, suit or suits, petition or petitions, at law or in equity, for the purpose of establishing their right, title, and claim to the said sequestration and rectory of Pickworth, and to all other the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, respectively, or to their defending or answering and opposing any action, suit, or petition which may be brought or preferred against them the said assignees, or against the said bankrupt, in relation thereto respectively; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees entering into any compromise, arbitration, or reference with the said respective parties, or any or either of them, before action, suit, or petition, or to the said assignees abandoning their prosecution of or defence or opposition to any such action, suit, or petition, upon compromise, arbitration, or reference; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said assignees prosecuting or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, which they may deem necessary, proper, or advisable for the recovering, obtaining, or keeping possession of the said sequestration and rectory of Pickworth, and all or any part of the real and personal estate or effects of the said bankrupt, or for any other purpose relating to the affairs of the said bankrupt, or for any other purpose in anywise concerning or relating to the working and prosecuting of the said Fiat; or to their compromising or submitting to arbitration or otherwise agreeing upon any matter or thing relating thereto; and to assent to, confirm, ratify, and allow, or otherwise dissent from, all or any acts, matters, and things done and performed by the assignees under the said Fiat; and generally to authorize the said assignees to take and adopt such other proceedings, in or relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, and for the due protection, sale, and disposition thereof, as the said assignees may think expedient; and on other special affairs.
