NOTICE TO MARINERS.

PORT OF LIVERPOOL.

Dock-Office, Liverpool, September 16, 1847.

(All Bearings by Compass.)

THE Trustees of the Liverpool Docks and Harbour do hereby give notice, that the following changes in the lighting, beaconing, and buoying of the northern approaches to this port will take place on and after the night of Tuesday the 2d November 1847:

Crosby Lighthouse.—A new light tower has been erected nearly half a mile N. E. by N. of the present Crosby Lighthouse. The light therefrom will be exhibited, for the first time, on the evening of the above date, and be continued every night from sun-set to sun-rise.

The light in this tower will be stationary, of a red colour, elevated 96 feet above the sea at half-tide level, and will be visible between the bearings of S. S. E. and N. E. by E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E. which limits will indicate respectively when a vessel is westward of Mad Wharf, and when she is abreast of the Crosby Light-vessel, and ought to shape her fairway course up the Crosby Channel.

The Formby Light-vessel will be moved 170 fathoms N. by W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W. of her present position, into 35 feet at low water. When brought in a line with the New Crosby Shore Light, she will lead in from seaward through the Victoria Channel, on a course of S. E. by E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  E.; and when brought in a line with the Crosby Light-vessel, she will lead in through the Half-tide Swashway, on the bearing of S. S. E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  E.

Crosby Beacon.—The Crosby Shore Beacon will be moved nearly half a mile N.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E. of its present position, on a line with the Crosby Shore Light and Formby Light-vessel.

The Bell Beacon will be moved about 170 fathoms S. W. of its present position, into 35 feet at low water, with the Formby Light-vessel and Crosby Shore Light in one, and bearing from the N. W. Light-ship N. E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E. four miles.

V. 4, Red (Can) Buoy, with Perch, will be moved nearly a quarter of a mile N. W. by N. of its present position, into 21 feet at low water.

Formby Light Vessel bearing N. E. by E. about one sixth of a mile.

C. 1, Red (Can) S. S. E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  E. nearly one and a half miles.

Formby N. W. Sea Mark will be moved one and one eighth mile N. N. E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E. of its present position, and a new beacon will be erected on Mad Wharf.

These beacons, when brought in one, on the bearing of S. E. by E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E. will lead from Formby N. W. Buoy up the fairway of the entrance of the Old Formby Channel.

William Lord, Marine Surveyor.
By order of the Dock Committee,
Daniel Mason, Secretary.

Harras Moor, otherwise Preston Common, Inclosure.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for dividing, allotting, laying in, severally inclosing, and draining the open and common fields, common meadows, and other commonable lands and waste grounds, called and known by the name of Harras Moor, otherwise Preston Common, situate in the township of Preston Quarter, in the parish of Saint Bees, in the county of Cumberland; and it is intended that provision shall be made to defray the expenses of obtaining the said Act, and carrying the same into execution, by sale of part of the said common or commonable lands, and also by a rate on the proprietors of the lands to be inclosed.—Dated this eleventh day of October 1847.

W. and J. Lumb, Solicitors, Whitehaven.

East Indian Railway Company for making and maintaining one or more Railways from Calcutta to the North West Provinces of India, by way of Mirzapore and Delhi, with Extensions.

Incorporation.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate a company, commonly called or known by the name of the East Indian Railway Company, established for the purpose of making, constructing, working, and maintaining one or more railways from Calcutta to the North West Provinces of India, by way of Mirzapore and Delhi, in the East Indies, with all necessary and convenient extensions, branches, and works; and to enable the said company to obtain and acquire all powers, rights, and privileges from the Supreme or any Local Government of India, necessary or convenient for the objects of the said undertaking; and also to confer on the Honourable East India Company, or the Supreme or any Local Government of India, all powers necessary or convenient for the purpose of authorizing, constructing, maintaining, projecting, and regulating railways and railway works in India, and taking and purchasing and holding lands, or any right, estate, interest, or profit in or out of lands for any term of years or in perpetuity for such purpose; and for the exercise of such powers by the said Supreme or any Local Government in favour of and to grant and concede lands, and depute the said powers to the said East Indian Railway Company, and any officer or officers thereof; and to enable the said East Indian Railway Company to make and enter into contracts with the Honourable East India Company and the Supreme and any Local Government of India, or any other body corporate or person in Great Britain or India; and to enable any such body corporate or person to enter into any contract or contracts with the said East Indian Railway Company or any officer or officers thereof; and to enable the said East Indian Railway Company to do all acts necessary and convenient for the objects aforesaid; and also to limit the responsibility of the proprietors in the said undertaking to the amount of their shares respectively; and also to enable the said East Indian Railway Company to sue and be sued in the name of one or more directors or some public or other officer of the same Company, or otherwise; and to confer such other powers, rights, and privileges on the same Company as may be deemed necessary or convenient for the purposes of the said undertaking, including powers to take and hold lands, or any right estate, interest, or profit in or out of lands for any term of years, or in perpetuity, in the East Indies and in Great Britain; and also powers and facilities for making, enforcing, and recovering calls, reducing or altering the amount of the shares, creating and transferring scrip and other shares, mortgages, debentures, and other like instruments and securities for increasing the capital of the Company; and for raising and borrowing money by mortgage or otherwise; and also for levying tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the use of the said railway or railways and extensions; together with such powers for regulating and protecting the rights of the shareholders, and the remittance or payment of dividends or interest in respect of any share or shares or other interest in the said railway or railways and extensions, and such further and other powers in relation to the premises as may be deemed advisable.—Dated this twentieth day of September 1847.

By order of the Board,
D. I. Noad, Secretary.
