Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1847.

A Gazette, containing Notices of intended Applications to Parliament for Bills (which Notices must be inserted in the Gazette before the end of the present Month), will be published To-morrow, Saturday the 13th November instant.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of October 1847,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session holden in the ninth and tenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, that the judges, clerks, bailiffs, and officers of the courts holden under the said Act, or any of them, shall be paid by salaries instead of fees, or in any manner other than is provided by the said Act :

And whereas by the said Act it is also enacted, that any Order in Council made for the purposes of the said Act shall be published in the London Gazette, and notice of the intention of Her Majesty to take into consideration the propriety of making any such Order shall be published in the London Gazette, one calendar month at least, before any such Order shall be made :

And whereas Her Majesty has been pleased this day to refer the consideration of the said Act, and of the Order which it may be proper to make for the purposes of the said Act as before mentioned, to a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and to direct, that the said Committee do report their opinion thereupon to Her Majesty:

Notice is hereby given, that, after the expiration of one calendar month from the date of the publication of this notice in the London Gazette, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, will take into consideration the propriety of making an Order, under the provisions of the said Act, for paying the judges, clerks, bailiffs, and officers of the said courts by salaries instead of fees, or in such other manner as may be deemed expedient.

North Western Railway.

(Diversions at Skipton, Casterton, and Sedbergh.)

WHEREAS a Bill was introduced into Parliament in the last session, intituled "A Bill for enabling the North Western Railway Company to make certain alterations and diversions in the main line of their railway, at Skipton, Casterton, and Sedbergh." And whereas, during the progress of the said Bill in the Honourable the House of Commons, provision was made therein authorizing an alteration in the line or course of one of the proposed diversions; and also a diversion of the turnpike road leading from Skipton to Clitheroe, and the carrying the line of the proposed Skipton Diversion of the said North Western Railway across a certain highway on the level; and also authorizing a diversion or alteration in the line of the Lancaster Branch of the North Western Railway, as already authorized by Parliament, not defined on the plans and sections, nor referred to in the books of reference deposited previously to the introduction of the said Bill.

And whereas further proceedings upon the said Bill were (pursuant to the resolutions of the House of Commons, passed on the tenth day of June last), suspended upon the Report from the Committee of the House of Commons, to whom the said Bill was referred, being considered and agreed to by the House of Commons.

Now notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to reintroduce the said Bill, with all such clauses, provisions, matters, and things therein as were contained in the said Bill, at the time that it was suspended in the House of Commons, during the last session of Parliament, as before mentioned.—Dated the 1st day of November 1847. John Sharp, Lancaster, Solicitor to the said Bill.

London and Blackwall Railway Improvement and Branches to the St. Katherine's and London Docks.

Notice of Application to Parliament for Re-introduction of Bill in the next Session.

WHEREAS notices were duly published, in the month of November last, in the London Gazette and in the Times Newspaper, that application was intended to be made to Parliament in the then next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of several Acts relating to the London and Blackwall Railway, and to enable the London and Blackwall Railway Company to alter the gauge of their railway as at present constructed, notwithstanding the provisions of an Act, passed in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the gauge of railways;" and also to enable the London and Blackwall Railway Company to take certain property near to certain streets, called Crutched Friars, Railway-place, Church-row, and London-street, or some of them, in the parishes of St. Olave Hart-street, St. Katherine Coleman, Allhallows Staining; and Allhallows Barking, or some of them, in the city of London; and also for powers to make and maintain the following branch railways (that is to say), a branch railway, from and out of the London and Blackwall Railway, at or near to White Lion-street otherwise Lemnastreet, in the parish of St. Mary Matfelon otherwise Whitechapel, in the county of Middlesex, passing thence through or into the parishes and places of St. Botolph Without Aldgate, the Tower liberties and precincts, St Katherine near the Tower, and St. John of Wapping, or some of them, in the county of Middlesex, and terminating in or near the London Docks, in the said parish of St. John of Wapping; also a branch railway, from and out of such last-mentioned branch railway, at or near to the street called Upper East Smithfield, in the said parishes of St. John of Wapping and St. Botolph Without Aldgate, or one of them, and terminating in or near the St. Katherine's Docks, in the last-mentioned parish. And that it was also intended to alter the levels of part of the London and Blackwall Extension Railway, at or near its junction with the Eastern Counties Railway, in the parish of St. Mary Stratford-le-Bow, in the county of Middlesex.

And whereas plans, sections, and books of reference were duly deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, at Clerkenwell; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the city of London, at his office in the Old Bailey; and also with the parish clerks of the several parishes in which such branch railways and works would be made, on or before the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-six.

And whereas, in pursuance of the aforesaid notices, application was made to Parliament in the last session for a Bill comprising the aforesaid works and objects, except the last-mentioned alteration of levels of part of the London and Blackwall Extension Railway, and under the authority of the resolutions of the Right Honourable the House of Lords and of the Honourable the House of Commons, dated, respectively, the tenth day of June last, the said Bill was suspended in the Right Honourable the House of Lords, at the close of the last session.

And whereas such Bill was intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the London and Blackwall Railway, and to authorize the Company to alter the gauge of their railway, and to make certain improvements in the approaches to the said railway, and to make branches to the London and St. Katherine's Docks;" and the short title thereof was "London and Blackwall Railway improvement and branches to the St. Katherine's and London Docks."

Now notice is hereby given, that it is intended in the next session of Parliament to apply to Parliament for leave to re-introduce the said Bill, and to pass the same into a law, with such modifications therein as to Parliament may seem meet.—Dated this twenty-sixth day of October 1847.

Equivalent-Office, November 8, 1847.

THE Court of Directors of the Equivalent Company give notice, that the transfer books of the said Company will be shut on Wednesday the 8th of December next, and continue so till Wednesday the 5th of January 1848, in order to settle the dividend of £2 per cent. due on the said 5th of January; and that the warrants for the said dividend will be ready to be delivered out and paid on Wednesday the said 5th of January, and on every subsequent Wednesday, from one to three o'clock, at their House, No. 7, Dowgate-hill, London, and at the said Company's Office, in Edinburgh.

Thomas Gregory Smith, Secretary.

Hope Assurance Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Court of Directors of the said Company have called and do hereby call an Extraordinary General Court of the Proprietors of the Hope Assurance Company, to be holden at the London Coffee-house, Ludgate-hill, on Friday the 26th day of November 1847, at a quarter past one o'clock precisely, for the purpose of considering a certain writing, under the hands and seals of upwards of three fourths of the Directors of the said Company, rescinding, revoking, and altering certain of the existing laws, rules, and regulations of the said Company, relating to the said Company generally; and of making new laws, rules, and regulations, and of approving or disapproving of the same, and confirming the same if approved of.

By order of the Court of Directors,

Willm. Bury, Secretary.

Hope Assurance-Office, No. 1, Furnival's-Inn, Holborn, November 12, 1847.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an Annual General Court of Proprietors, holding ten shares and upwards in the Subscription Capital Stock of the Life Department of this Company, will be holden at the London Coffee-house, Ludgate-hill, on Friday the 26th instant, for the purpose of receiving the Auditors' report, agreeably to the deed of settlement.

Willm. Bury, Secretary.

N.B. The chair will be taken at one o'clock precisely.

Deccan Prize Money.

Secretary's-Office, Royal Hospital, Chelsea, October 28, 1847.

THE Trustees of the prize money for the captures in the Deccan, in the years 1817 and 1818, having paid over to this Hospital the amount of the unclaimed shares of the final portion of the said prize money due to Her Majesty's troops who served under the command of the late Most Noble Francis Marquess of Hastings, in the war against the Pindarees and certain of the Mahratta States in the above years; notice is hereby given, that payment of the said shares will commence on the 1st day of December next, and be continued at this Office on each succeeding day, between the hours of ten and two.

Richard Neave, Secretary and Registrar.
