Second Lieutenant Henry Nicholas Gell to be First Lieutenant, vice Payne, promoted.

Whitehall, December 6, 1847.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Marlow, of Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, situated in the parish of Skenfret, in the county of Monmouth, in the district of Monmouth, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 6th day of December 1847, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 7th day of December 1847,

Edwin Richards, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a building, erected for the celebration of the Catholic worship, and styled St. Alban's Church, situated in the town of Pontypool, in the parish of Trevechin, in the county of Monmouth, in the district of Pontypool, licenced and used for public religious worship as a Roman Catholic Church exclusively, was, on the 2d day of December 1847, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 3d day of December 1847,

Edmd. B. Edwards, Superintendent Registrar.

Chester Cemetery.

[Incorporation of Cemetery Company, with power to compound for Tolls over Dee Bridges.]

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session, for leave to bring in a Bill to authorise the establishment of a burial ground or cemetery for the burial of the dead, with chapels and other buildings, and all proper approaches and other conveniences connected therewith, in the parish of Saint Mary on the Hill, in the city of Chester, which said proposed burial ground or cemetery, chapels, and other buildings are intended to be erected and constructed in or upon certain pieces or parcels of land, gardens, and houses at Overleigh, in the said parish, and belonging to the Most Honourable Richard Marquess of Westminster, and the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the city of Chester; and which said pieces or parcels of land, gardens, and houses are bounded on the north by the shore road along the south bank of the river Dee; on the south by the old turnpike road leading from Chester to Northop, and the plantation at the foot thereof; on the east by a certain road or lane leading to the river Dee out of the said old turnpike road from Chester to Northop; and on the west by the road and embankment forming the south approach to the Grosvenor Bridge, over the said river Dee.

And it is also intended by the said proposed Bill to incorporate a company for the purpose of carrying the said undertaking into effect, and to confer upon the said company power to purchase, by compulsion or agreement, and to hold the said pieces or parcels of land, gardens, and houses, and also to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with the said pieces or parcels of land, gardens, and houses, which would interfere with the purposes aforesaid.

And it is also intended by the said proposed Bill to confer upon the same company power to levy, demand, and receive fees and other payments in respect of the said burial ground or cemetery and other works, and also to enable the said company to borrow and raise money for all or any of the purposes aforesaid.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to enable the Bishop of Chester for the time being, under certain regulations and restrictions, to suspend the further interment of the dead in the church-yards of the several churches in the said city of Chester, or some of them, and to vary or extinguish the rights and privileges of the rectors, vicars, perpetual curates, and incumbents of the parish churches within the said city of Chester, and of all other persons interested therein, in regard to mortuaries and other fees and payments now payable on account of burials therein, and to make compensation in respect thereof.

And it is also intended by the said proposed Bill to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for erecting an additional bridge over the river Dee, in the city of Chester, and for opening and making convenient roads and approaches thereto, and for taking down and rebuilding the parish church of Saint Bridget, within the said city, and for repairing the present bridge over the river Dee." And also of an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for extending the time for completing the additional bridge over the river Dee, in the city of Chester." And to enable the Commissioners, acting under and in execution of the powers of the said Acts, to compound with the said company for any tolls payable in respect of horses and carriages travelling over the said bridge, called Grosvenor Bridge, constructed under the powers contained in the
