At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 2d day of March 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for apportioning the income of the rectory of Prestwich, in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Manchester, between that rectory and the perpetual curacy of All Saints, Stand, in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas it was by the said Act enacted, that arrangements might be made, by the authority therein provided, for the apportionment of the income of two benefices, belonging to the same patron, between the incumbents or ministers of such benefices, or the churches or chapels connected therewith, provided that no such arrangement should be made in any case so as to prejudice the interests of any existing incumbent, nor without the consent of the bishop of the diocese :

"And whereas the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of Wilton is patron of the rectory of Prestwich, and of the perpetual curacy of All Saints, Stand, and both the said benefices are in the diocese of Manchester :

"And whereas the said rectory of Prestwich is endowed, amongst other modes, with a certain rent charge in lieu of the tithes arising within the hamlet of Unsworth, in the township of Pilkington, in the same parish, and amounting in the whole to the gross annual sum of one hundred and one pounds, eighteen shillings, and eleven pence :

"And whereas the average annual income of the said perpetual curacy of All Saints, Stand, is below two hundred pounds, and the population thereof exceeds six thousand :

"And whereas a desire has been expressed to us by the said Thomas Earl of Wilton, that arrangements should be made for apportioning the income of the said rectory of Prestwich, by the transfer of the rent charge aforesaid to the said perpetual curacy of All Saints, Stand; and it appears to us to be expedient, that such arrangements should be forthwith carried into effect :

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Thomas Earl of Wilton, the Right Reverend James Prince Bishop of Manchester; and of the Venerable John Rushton, Doctor in Divinity, as Rector of Prestwich aforesaid, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed this scheme, that all the rent charge in lieu of the tithes of the said hamlet of Unsworth, heretofore belonging to the said rectory of Prestwich, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same, duly made and published in the London Gazette; and, on and from the day of such publication, become and be transferred from the said rectory and annexed in perpetuity to the said perpetual curacy of All Saints, Stand; and that thereupon the said perpetual curacy shall become and be a rectory by the name of the Rectory of All Saints, Stand; and the incumbent thereof for the time being shall be rector thereof; and that such rector shall be entitled to receive and enjoy the said rent charge as part of the endowment of such rectory, together with all other endowments and emoluments now belonging to the said perpetual curacy.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.
