

the Emperors service. And that Count Teckelej, having in the desperate condition he was reduced to, retired to Great Waradin, to solicit the Assistance of the Turks, The Bassa of that Place had on the 15th past, made him a Prisoner, and had sent him with Irons on his Hands and Feet to Adrianople. And to this great news, is added that of the taking of Zolnock by the Baron de Mercy, (which we have likewise by an Express) the Turkish Garrison having upon his approach, abandoned the place, and retiring to Agria; And of Leutsch by Colonel Heusler. The same Express brings the Confirmation of the Imperialists being Possessed of Little Waradin, Ca'o Ibraby, St. Nicolas, Onosb, Debrezin, Tockay and Potocke, so that they are now Masters of all Upper Hungary, except Agria, and one or two places more, which are still in the hands of the Turks and the Rebels.

Hamburg, Octob. 29. The King of Denmark arrived the 26th of this month at Itzar, about seven German miles from hence; The 27th his Majesty went from thence to Gluckstadt, intending to return this day to Itzar. The Magistrates of this City have sent thither two of their Body to Compliment his Majesty, and to make him the usual present of Wine; From thence his Majesty will go to Gottorp, and after a few days stay there, will return to Copenhagen. The Sieur de Guldenstolp, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sweden to the States General of the United Provinces, is arrived here, and will in a day or two continue his Journey for Holland. The last Letters from Poland give an account that the Seraiquier Soliman and the Cham of Tartary were joyned together, that their Chief aim seemed to be to supply Caminiec with Provisions and Ammunition; And that the Polish Army was within a days march of them.

Hamburg, Nov. 6. We had Letters by the last Post from Poland, which told us, that the Turks and Tartars being joyned together, and making an Army of 6000 men, had endeavoured several times to enclose and fall upon the Poles, who, with the Forces of Lithuania, were not above 25000 strong; That from the first to the tenth of the last month the two Armies had been every day in Action; That they came at last to a general Battle; and that after a very obstinate and bloody Fight, the Poles obtained an absolute Victory, entirely defeating the Enemy, and taking their Cannon and Baggage, and all the Provisions designed for Caminiec. Of which we hope our next Letters will bring us the confirmation with the further particulars.

Cologne, Nov. 6. The Emperor having sent a Manifesto to the Magistrates of this City, by which they were required on pain of the Imperial Ban, to deliver Gulick, Sacks, and Mechovius, into the hands of his Commissioners here, they resolved, after some difficulty, to comply with it, and accordingly the 4th Instant very early in the morning the said three persons were put into a Boat, and carried under a Guard of 30 Soldiers belonging to the Duke of Newbourg, to Duseldorp, where they will be kept, under close imprisonment, till this place be cleared of those Mutineers, that continue to disturb the publick Peace, when it is said they will be brought back to be punished according to their desert. They write from Alsace that the new Fortifications at Fribourg, Brisac, Schlestadt and Colmar, are quite finished, and that the French continue to work with great diligence on those of Strasbourg and Hunnirghen.

Brussels, Novemb. 3. The 11th Instant arrived here the Prince de Steinbeuse, who served the last Campaign in Hungary, coming Post from Vienna, with the good News that Caschau was surrendered to the Imperialists the 25th past; That Teckelej, who fled to Great Waradin, was made a Prisoner by the Bassa of that place, and sent bound in Irons to the Grand Signior; And that General Mercy and Colonel Heusler had taken Zolnock and Leusch, both which places were abandoned, the first by the Turks, and the other by the Hungarians, that were in them.

Hague, Nov. 13. The Sieur Cambricke, the Imperial Minister, hath communicated to the States General the late happy Successes of the Imperial Arms in Upper Hungary, in the taking of Caschau, Zolnock, Leusch, and several other places; and that the Bassa of Great Waradin having got Teckelej into his hands, had sent him Prisoner to Adrianople.

Paris, Novemb. 10. The King has had a fit of the Gout, which took him in the Foot and the Hand, but the pain thereof has at present left him. The Prince de Conzi is pretty well recovered, but the Prince de Conzi her Husband dyed last night of the Small-Pox. The fifth of this month dyed Messire Jean de Montpesor de Carbon, Arch-Bishop of Sens, in the 79th year of his age. The Bishop of Soissons is likewise dead.

Paris, Novemb. 14. The Ambassador of Poland at this Court, has received advice of a great Victory obtained by the Forces of that Crown against the Turks and Tartars, who, though above double the number of the Christians, were totally defeated, and their Camp and Carion taken: Of which we expect the particulars by the next Letters.
